NEWSLETTER | FEBRUARY 2026

A MESSAGE FROM YOUR REGIONAL DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

After a long day, I found myself in the checkout line of a busy grocery store. Around me, the rhythmic beeps of scanners punctuated the shuffle of carts, while nearby, friends exchanged the familiar, half-hearted promise to “grab lunch soon”—a well-meaning refrain rarely fulfilled. In the next lane, an elderly gentleman was telling who I can only assume was his very young grandchild that when they got home, he’d “buy that wart off of her.” I was utterly flummoxed, positively befuddled, and completely nonplussed—what on earth was this tomfoolery unfolding in the sacred ten-items-or-less express lane? I couldn’t wait to reach my car and dive online—curious whether Pa-paw’s claim had merit or if his imagination had simply taken flight.

The digital know-it-all, Google, told me the tradition: rub a copper penny over the wart, then bury it somewhere secret—some low-tech magic hoping the wart vanishes, carried away by the earth. It’s a charming blend of faith, hope, and folk wisdom, a reminder of a time when healing was as much about intention and human connection as it was about medicine. And at the heart of it is intention, the deeply held belief that true healing begins in the heart and mind, nurtured by small acts of care and kindness.

Copper isn’t just a shiny metal; it has natural antimicrobial properties, known for centuries to aid in healing. But beyond the science, this story—and others like it—holds something far more precious: the power of storytelling and tradition. They are the threads that tie us to those who came before, the lessons and love passed down through generations.

In our fast-paced world, these stories risk fading away, lost in the shuffle of modern life. Yet they hold a quiet power—not just in what they teach us about healing or health, but in how they remind us to pause, listen, and share. To tell our own stories, to pass along the wisdom tucked into everyday moments, and to treasure the customs that shape who we are.

In our community, that spirit flourishes every day. Healing isn’t always about grand cures; it’s found in the smiles shared, the hands held, and the quiet presence beside someone who needs it most. Like the copper penny, these small acts carry a weight far greater than their size, weaving a fabric of care, connection, and hope.

As we move forward into this year, let’s take time to share our stories—those old family traditions, those little-known remedies, those moments of kindness and resilience that define us. Because when we tell these tales, we keep the past alive, strengthen our bonds, and build a future rooted in love, respect, and community.

May this year bring stories shared, memories made, and healing found in the simple power of connection.

Warmly,

Becky Ballas

Shirley Snead: Love, Family & Community

January day in 1938, when she was born in Munford, Alabama, to Coleman and Bertha Goodwin. As the eldest of three siblings, with brothers Kirk and Jimmy close behind, Shirley grew up surrounded by family and the small-town rhythms of Munford.

She attended Munford High School, graduating in 1956, and soon after, began working at King Motor Company—now Sunny King Ford of Anniston. It was there that fate brought her together with Roy Snead, the man who would become her husband and lifelong partner. Their wedding took place on August 15, 1965, at Bethlehem Methodist Church in Munford, a day that marked the start of a beautiful journey.

Shortly after tying the knot, Shirley and Roy settled into their home on Valley Drive in Weaver, Alabama. Ten years later, in 1975, they took a big step and built a house of their own, a place to call home and lay down roots for their growing family.

♥ ♥ ♥ happy valentine's day ♥ ♥

Roy's dedication to the community shone through his 24 years as Sheriff of Calhoun County, a role that brought pride and purpose to their lives. Together, Shirley and Roy raised two wonderful children: Sharon and Roy Bert. Both were nurtured in Weaver, graduating from Weaver High School before pursuing higher education—Sharon at Jacksonville State University and Roy Bert at Auburn University. Today, Shirley and Roy's family has blossomed to include four grandchildren, who fill their lives with joy.

Shirley's love extends beyond family. She's famous for her pound cakes, a recipe that's become legendary among those lucky enough to enjoy a slice. Baking has long been one of her passions and a way to share love and comfort with those around her. Travel, too, has been a joy, adding rich experiences to her life's tapestry.

Through every chapter, Shirley has carried with her a spirit of warmth, generosity, and grace. Her story is one of love, family, and community, and a story we are honored to share and celebrate here at Legacy Village of Jacksonville.

Chaplain's Corner

This month of February brings with it many important holidays: George Washington's Birthday, National Freedom Day, Rosa Parks Day, and one that has become most celebrated—Valentine's Day, named after St. Valentine, who was martyred because he refused to denounce his Christian faith in pagan Rome.

The most important day we can celebrate is for the greatest martyr that ever lived, the Lord Jesus Christ. He gave His life so that we can have life—and have life everlasting. John 3:16 states, "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

May God's blessings be with us as we journey through the month of February, one day at a time.

Chaplain Mike Yates
