Name: Sharon Gold

Job title: NSIC Service Manager

A little bit about me:

I am conscientious, and family orientated. I am a big believer that it is of great importance to have a good work/life balance. I always strive to do my best and at times being a perfectionist find that this can be very challenging. I am a real people person and enjoy supporting others.

A snapshot of my career:

I started working with the NHS in 2008 within the GP sector. I left my role as Office Manager in 2014 and moved across to BHT where I started as senior medical secretary in Rheumatology, then in 2018 I wanted to broaden my skillset and learn about a new speciality. I joined the NSIC as a senior medical secretary and within 12 months I applied and gained the role as Deputy Service Manager and in August 2020 I became the Service Manager for the NSIC.

I like to motivate others by:

Leading by example and being a good role model.

I like to focus on the positives to bring out the best in others.

I find chocolate helps to reward and show recognition.

A personal value I stand by is:

Being open and honest.

Being an active listener.

Having empathy for both staff and patients.

Others would say my best leadership quality is:

Having time for others and the passion to help them succeed.

I like to help others to become the best version of themselves.

My main strengths, skills and qualities that would benefit a mentee are:

People Management

Organisational skills

Admin process management

My interests outside of work include:

Spending time with family & friends

Walking my dogs

Swimming, and the gym too in small doses

Anything else of interest:

I am an LGBT+ Ally
