

ST. PETER'S EST. 1880 EPISCOPAL CHURCH THE CROSSKEYS

JANUARY 2026

From the Rector

Dear Saints of St. Peter's,

As January begins, we find ourselves standing at a threshold.

In Scotland there is a tradition called Hogmanay. In the wee hours of the night, homes are lit and doors are watched as people wait to welcome the new year. Voices join together in Auld Lang Syne, hands link, and then come the knocks at the door. The first footers arrive—guests who cross the threshold bearing gifts for the year ahead: cheer for celebration, food for sustenance, and fuel for warmth.

There is something deeply human—and deeply holy—about that image: a knock at the door, a guest waiting to be welcomed, hope carried across a threshold.

It is an image that echoes the Christian story. Scripture speaks of Christ as the One who comes to dwell among us—standing at the door, knocking, bearing gifts of grace and new life. Christ does not force entry. He waits to be received.

The beginning of a new year gives us a natural moment to pause and ask: How will I open the door this year? What intentions will shape my prayer life? What practices will help me notice God's presence more clearly? And how will I offer myself—my time, gifts, and care—to the shared life of St. Peter's?

Much has happened in this past year at St. Peter's. We have worshiped, served, welcomed, mourned, and celebrated together. I am deeply grateful for the faithfulness and generosity of this community and for the ways you continue to show up for one another and for our neighbors.

Now, the door opens again. The year ahead holds new possibilities for ministry, growth, and deeper connection. My invitation to you is simple: be intentional. Set aside time to pray. Consider how Christ might be asking to enter more fully into your daily life and into our life together as a parish.

Perhaps it is in participating in the daily prayer of the Church. Starting the week of January 5th, Morning and Evening Prayer will take place each weekday at 8:00am and 5:15pm. As Christ enters the door of our hearts each day, what would a practice of entering the doors of his Church look like throughout the week?

On the threshold of this new year, Christ stands at the door and knocks. May we have the courage and humility to open the door and receive the gifts he brings.

In God's Peace,

The Rev. Derek Larson, TSSF

DAILY PRAYER AT ST. PETER'S

CENTERING PRAYER

MONDAY - FRIDAY 7:30-8:00 AM

Join Fr. Derek for Centering Prayer each weekday morning from 7:30am-8:00am in the church. Centering Prayer is a receptive method of Christian silent prayer, rooted in the early church, which deepens our relationship with God—a prayer in which we can experience God's presence within us, closer than breathing, closer than thinking, closer than consciousness itself. Reach out to Fr. Derek to learn more about the practice or find out more here: <https://www.contemplativeoutreach.org/centering-prayer-method/>

MORNING AND EVENING PRAYER

Join Fr. Derek and members of the Daily Office team to pray the daily office, Monday-Friday, in the church.

Morning Prayer

Monday-Friday
8:00 am

Evening Prayer

Monday - Friday
5:15 pm

CHURCH OPEN FOR PRAYER

St. Peter's welcomes visitors for prayer most weekdays, between the hours of 7:30 am and 5:30 pm. You are invited to come and spend some quiet time in our sacred space for reflection and prayer.

BIBLE STUDY WITH THE RECTOR IN-PERSON AND ONLINE!

Each week on Wednesdays at 10:30am, eight to twelve parishioners gather in Bender Hall to reflect and study the Scripture passages assigned for the upcoming Sunday. Now we have added the opportunity for folks to join us online using zoom. If you would like to join the in-person meeting online, please send an email to Fr. Derek at rector@stpetersplantcity.com.

fAmILy Mass

Family Mass is held at the last Sunday's 10:30am service each month. All families are welcome—large and small, families of birth and of choice. Not all families include children, but some do, and making worship friendly and accessible for all ages is part of what we're called to do as members of Christ's church. The Family Mass is an all-ages Episcopal worship that centers children and youth in a more obvious way. It's an opportunity to share, to learn, and to grow together as God's family through all generations. Join us!

A (SORT OF) CHRISTMAS STORY

By John Santosuosso

"And our eyes at last shall see him,
Through his own redeeming love;
For that Child so dear and gentle,
Is our Lord in heav'n above;
And he leads his children on
To the place where he is gone.

Cecil Alexander, "Once in Royal David's City"

"And man will live forevermore because of Christmas Day."

Harry Bellafante, "Mary's Boy Child"

NOTE: The story below is true. Only the names have been changed to protect the guilty. A special thanks to the late Jean Shepherd for some helpful inspiration.

It was over eighty years ago, but it seems like only yesterday, the first day of kindergarten. Under the compassionate supervision of our teacher, Miss Richardson, there we sat stringing beads and stacking blocks, unaware of the dramatic change that was taking place in our young lives. We were about to embark on a long journey, one filled with success for some but tragedy for others.

Mary Langdon, however, sensed something, something she did not like. She made a bee line for the classroom door in a desperate attempt to exit, only to have it blocked by Miss Richardson and her mother. Sobbing, she was sent back to her beads. Gloria Gomez threw a miniature plastic Santa Claus across the room in protest, but it bounced harmlessly off the blackboard, changing nothing. In the far corner of the room Mark, the son of a locally prominent clergyman would periodically utter, "Here comes the boogey man." The rest of us were too confused to do much other than continue our bead stringing. We were about to be born into a new world, but the reality of that had not yet dawned upon us.

Gradually we began to learn to adapt, one of the reasons we were here in the first place, though we did not yet understand that. By the time we made it to the first grade the girls had learned several games they could play at recess, and the boys had taken up football. The Frank M. North Elementary School failed to provide us with athletic equipment, but no matter, somebody's hat could serve as the ball. Bill Dempsey soon established himself as our quarterback, an honor and task that were his until high school graduation.

The years passed by almost without notice. Some of us would graduate together. Others moved away. Tragically there were a couple of suicides, but there were success stories as well. Mark gave up boogeymen for a Ph.D. and joined the faculty of a very prestigious university. Regardless of the success any of us were fortunate enough to enjoy, none of us has made the journey without falling into some nasty potholes. My good friend "Ace" lost his loving wife to cancer. At least one classmate fell victim to alcoholism. Still, as a whole we managed to survive, at times even thrive. On occasion we reached the mountaintops. At other times we had to walk through the dark valleys. But there are those tasks that all of us are called to complete. Birth opens the door to opportunity, but that opportunity inevitably comes with a price.

Some two thousand years ago there was a birth in Bethlehem that heralded a new beginning. Shepherds and magi alike would join the celebration of the event. However, later they would not be there. That birth led to a sometimes lonely dangerous journey that ended in death at Golgotha. Jesus encountered all of it and dared to overcome it, but it did not come easily. It came at a terrible price.

Think about your own journey. As a child there may have been the joy of a first pet, and also the sorrow of the death of that little creature that gave you unconditional love. Do you recall the first time you fell in love, and the first you encountered rejection? Was there the joy of your first paying job and the pain of later losing it? Did love ones whom you adored later grow ill leaving you to wonder why? Still, we have marched on, called by the death and resurrection of our Lord to learn all and be all that God intended for us to be.

Christmas day commemorates the birth of Jesus. It is also our day of birth into a journey with the one who went before us, a journey to a glory that will never end. Some will have less difficulty making the trip than others, but never forget our Lord will work without end to make certain no one is left behind. Have a blessed Christmas.

Mission & Outreach Opportunities at St. Peter's and Beyond

Dear St. Peter's Family,

Throughout the year, our clergy and staff care for our parish with dedication, compassion, and countless behind-the-scenes efforts. Their steady leadership and faithful service help make our worship meaningful and our parish life strong and vibrant.

Each year, we invite the congregation to show our appreciation through a Clergy & Staff Purse, a special monetary gift shared among our dedicated team:

- Fr. Derek Larson, Rector
- Rev. Denise Healy, Deacon
- Sarah Dean, Parish Administrator
- Helen Jones, Director of Music Ministry
- Tony Wilson, Sexton

This purse is a simple but meaningful way for us to say thank you for all they do.

If you would like to contribute, please mail or drop off a check made payable to St. Peter's Episcopal Church with "Clergy/Staff Purse" in the memo line. All gifts must be received by Sunday, January 11, 2026, to be included.

We also recognize that not everyone is able to contribute financially. If that is the case, we invite you to support our clergy and staff by offering prayers on their behalf or by writing them a personal note of appreciation. Your words and prayers are treasured gifts.

The purse will be distributed at our Annual Meeting on January 18, 2026, where we will have the opportunity to express our gratitude together. Thank you for helping us honor the people who serve our parish with such dedication. Your generosity, whether through gifts, prayers, or words of encouragement, truly makes a difference.

With gratitude,

Patti Booher
Senior Warden, on behalf of the vestry
