BCCT SCHOLARSHIPS

In 1997, BCCT instituted a scholarship program which awards a scholarship of up to $1,000 to ALL eligible high school seniors!

The recipients of this year’s scholarships are Ava Buray, Noelle Coburn, Jayden Calo, Hailey Merz and Gavin Powers. BCCT wishes these graduates the best of luck in all their future endeavors!

The Bob DiGrigoli Scholarship

This scholarship is awarded in memory of our former set designer Bob DiGrigoli by his wife Kathy. Through Kathy’s generosity aspiring young performers will receive a scholarship to BCCT STAGES. The 2025–26 scholarships are awarded to Shane Best, Matias Cuspica, Lorelei Paxton, Emerson Willis and Aubree Yetman. Good luck to these recipients.

James M. Keating Memorial Scholarship

While everyone would love to be the lead, in the ensemble you work as a group to bring the whole story together. It takes great ensemble members who bring 100% of their heart and soul to the show. Each year, the Keating Family awards this scholarship in James’s memory to a graduating senior who best exemplifies the spirit of the ensemble. The 2024 scholarship was awarded to Regina Messenger. The 2025 scholarship will be presented at Sunday’s performance.
