

Imagine a world where we knew ourselves inside out.

A world in which we weren't afraid to look within because we knew there were no monsters lurking there.

A world where we took control of our destinies because we were the one in charge of driving our life and achievements.

BRON WILLIAMS

SPEAKER | AUTHOR | PhD RESEARCH

When we take charge of our inner worlds,
we discover the superpowers that lie within.

Superpowers which, regardless of what is happening around us, give us confidence in knowing where we are going and what we are achieving.

We discover we are our own best asset.

BRON WILLIAMS

We realise we are superheroes in disguise.

Through sharing her own experiences and stories, Bron's presentation was both authentic and relatable to the audience
James Oxenham, CEO, HRIA.

Bron made a complex subject really easy to follow and interact with,
the flow works very well and was extremely engaging.
The Hatchery, Australia.

Bron gave a presentation to my organization and there was nothing but praises and amazement. She left the group wanting for more.
Vandana Khanna, Digital Finance Executive, Unilever, USA.

I would highly recommend Bron's presentation to others. She's an engaging speaker, and she made it clear that when people put in the effort to change then the culture in a workplace can change.
Nisrine Mogharbel, Assistant Director, DAWE.

Bron presented at my work and it was one of the best seminars I have been to. Bron, in my opinion, is one of the most in-tune and insightful public speakers and champion for real change that I have ever listened to. She presented to almost 200 people at my work and created a lot of buzz.

John Kulper, Auditor, Author

Bron Williams

Bron Williams takes her varied experience across the fields of education and non-profit, including leading a school, running a Salvation Army welfare centre and church, and working with asylum seekers on Nauru, and fuses it with the insight she has gained into how people think, relate and make decisions.

An experienced speaker, having worked with corporates (like Unilever) and peak sporting bodies – such as Tennis Australia – as well as government departments (local, state and federal) and small business, Bron is a gifted storyteller, with the ability to take complex ideas and present them to her audiences as readily understandable concepts. Bron both holds her audiences spellbound and engages with them in a warm and lively manner.

Keynote Presentation: Superheroes in Disguise

Bron's audiences know there is more to them than meets the eye.

In this presentation, Bron helps her audience discover they are the champions they've been looking for, to confidently know they are their own best asset, and to realise that they truly are the superheroes of their own lives.

Main Takeaways

We can uncover what drives our decision-making, relationships and goal setting by:

1. Identifying the biases that lurk beneath the surface of our conscious thought,
2. Cherishing our needs and ensuring that they are met before we try to meet the needs of others,
3. Developing the art of self-reflection with courage and honesty, and
4. Shaping our lives by the values that are meaningful to us.

Formats

- 45 minute inspirational keynote
- 60 minute presentation including 15 minute Q&A
- Virtual, Corporate and Conference Stage

BRON WILLIAMS

Why work with Bron

Specialist in the Field

Since 2016, Bron has worked consistently to bring insight into the impact narratives, backstories and biases have on relationships and how people make decisions.

Backed by Research

Beginning in 2022, Bron is undertaking doctoral studies at Charles Sturt University, focusing on the relationship between bias and shame.

Experienced Speaker

With extensive experience in the education and not-for-profit sectors - ranging from working with children with special needs, through running a school, to managing a Salvation Army welfare centre and church - Bron has over 30 years experience in the public speaking space.

Knowledge + Lived Experience

Bron began her journey of working with personal bias in 2012 when, working with asylum seekers on the Pacific island of Nauru, she was confronted with her own racism and white privilege. Her presentations draw on research by Harvard Business Review, McKinsey, Forbes and University of Pennsylvania.

Bron Williams is a dynamic and inspiring speaker. She is genuine, authentic and someone you just can't help but want to surround yourself with! A true inspiration!

Lindsay Adamson | Singer | Songwriter

BRON WILLIAMS

SPEAKER | AUTHOR | PhD RESEARCH

TESTIMONIALS

Virtual Delivery

Bron's an engaging speaker, and she made it clear that when people put in the effort to change then the culture in a workplace can change.

Nisrine Mogharbel, | Assistant Director | CALD Network | DAWE

Bron brought great insights in the session, how we can become better leaders and individuals by being aware and better at managing our biases.

Reshma Devi | ISACA Board Member

Bron gave an inspirational keynote speech to our AGM. Our members praised her content and delivery. Her speech reminded us that we should continue to take time to interrogate our own biases and ensure our advocacy is inclusive. Bron set the scene for an engaging Governance Summit.

Jacqueline Graham | President | BPW Australia

General Delivery

Bron's knowledge of diversity combined with people and communication skills has made our journey to better understanding a smooth one.

Lisa Dalla-Zuanna, | State Manager | Salvation Army Housing

Bron provided a passionate and engaging presentation. It was eye-opening and made us think about our views and perspectives.

Brad Slowrink | Melbourne Park Rotary

Peers

Bron brings a wealth of experience, qualifications, wisdom and insight to create a rich, innovative and productive environment where people thrive, significant goals are accomplished and visions become reality.

Belinda Cowie | Founder and Director | The | Matter Foundation

Bron's approach brought a new perspective to my life and business.

Jennifer Markle Dumnich | Professional Speaker, Author | Personal Trainer

Bron sheds light on how different biases can influence you as an individual, but most significantly how individual bias can damage a company.

Corrina Lindby | Founder | The Answer is Yes

SPEAKER | AUTHOR | PhD RESEARCH

BRON WILLIAMS

Contact Bron Williams:

Speaker Reel: <https://youtu.be/PsBecnjRo0Q>

Based in Melbourne, Australia

Delivering Nationally & Globally, Virtually & In-Person

Mobile: +61 (0) 416 328 879

Email: info@bronwilliams.com

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/bron-williams/>

<https://twitter.com/Br0nz18>

'I Have Seen The Moon', Bron's reflection on her experience of working in the off-shore processing centre on Nauru, is available from Amazon.