Commission Reports

- Spirituality: A reading by Maya Angelou was read.
- Service: No report
- Leadership: No report.

Committee Reports

- Martha's Group: Two funerals were held at the KC hall during June, every thing went well.
- Rosary: Everything is fine
- Kitchen: Anna Ledvina. is working with Sue Murphy, learning all the aspects and will take over at some point and time. Please include her when kitchen items are needed. Hopefully within the month, the leftover dishes new location will be located in the entrance by the elevator.
- Guild Update: Currently working on updating the Martha's group.
- Respect for Life: Right to Life dinner at Pizone's was not as well attended as the year before. The speaker was fantastic, focusing on the 'middle minded group, the ones that don't think they can judge something that doesn't effect them. Her goal was to change their way of thinking. Monroe County Fair – Right for Life work sign-up was passed around. Suggestion was made to ask Angela Copenhaver if they could us the ad campaign video at the fair, Carol S. to check into.
- Church Cleaning: Open Position. Please consider chairing this committee. Contact Natalie or Carol.
- Sunshine Committee: Sue would like to thank everyone for all the cards, having them on hand makes it easier. She reported that August cards were ready to be sent out.

Old Business

- Rummage Sale Update: The rummage sale committee would like to thank everyone that worked so diligently to make this year a huge success. Currently gross income was 18,238.01, thanks to everyone that donated and worked. This year we purchased a 20x20 tent that will be used for the rummage sale and the pancake breakfast at cranfest.
- Coffee Social Report: Currently tabled. Natalie Halfman will speak to the different groups and report next month.
- Pastor Installation Feedback: Very nice, approximately 160 people attended the dinner. Father Ethan's birthday was also celebrated with a birthday cake.
- Rural Life Day Update: Currently not sure with the pccw roll will be, more to come.

New Business

- QA Student Supply List: School starts on August 21th, please review the list and drop off any items to the school office.
- Cranfest Pancake Breakfast Update: The committee met this week and it underway. Silverware wrapping will be held prior to the September meeting.

Future Events
