

Archangels and Friends Civil War Museum Tour

Monday, Oct. 6, 2025 — 11:45 am — 2:00 pm

The 103rd Ohio Volunteer Infantry (OVI) was one of the Ohio units fighting in the Civil War. The 103rd OVI fought several battles on its way to and back from Atlanta, Georgia. In an effort to maintain the close friendships that were formed as a result of their service, the veterans established an annual reunion for themselves and their families. They eventually bought property along Lake Road in Sheffield Lake. Their descendants have perpetuated the tradition. They established barracks, a museum, and other facilities on the site.

We were able to arrange a visit to this Northeast Ohio Hidden Gem—only 15 minutes from St. Raphael's. We will gather at the museum to enjoy the grounds, a lunch, a docent, and a tour of the Museum. There is no bus for this outing. If you are willing to carpool, please indicate this on the reservation form below.

If you have questions contact Bill—email: Bill@skaryd.com or phone 216.401.5694

Please Respond by October 2nd, as we need an accurate number for lunch.
