YOU ARE INVITED

Sister Ignatia Gavin, CSA, Center for Addiction Medicine

OPEN HOUSE & PROGRAM LEARNING SESSIONS | THURSDAY, DECEMBER 3, 2026

The newly opened Sister Ignatia Gavin, CSA, Center for Addiction Medicine provides compassionate addiction treatment, recovery support and resources for individuals and families affected by substance use disorders. Home to Rosary Hall, the Center carries forward Sister Ignatia's nearly 95-year legacy of bringing dignity, hope and healing to those struggling with all types of addiction.

Sisters of Charity of St. Augustine Congregational Leader Sister Judith Ann Karam, CSA, and Sisters of Charity Health System President & CEO Michael Goar, invite you to an open house to explore the Center and discover how faith communities can help connect individuals and familiesto treatment and recovery.

- Join Dr. Ted Parran, Medical Director, for a learning session on understanding addiction, reducing stigma and connecting people with treatment and recovery resources.
- Meet Karen Komondor, Executive Director, tour the Center and explore opportunities for partnership.
