EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

JANUARY 4, 2026

Following Your Light

It has always been about the light with you, hasn't it, Jesus?
The Magi, braved distance and desert to find you ...
and bewildered shepherds, compelled by an angel's invitation,
allowed light to be their guide.

And it is still the light that calls us to you ...
the light of beauty that whispers its truth in surprising ways and places ...
the light of compassion that kneels and washes road-soiled, life-battered feet ...
the light of joy that glows even in the darkness of grief and suffering ...
the light that seeks to shine within us,
and through us into the dark corners of our world.

It has always been about the light with you, Jesus,
and may it always be about the light for us.
Please lead us, now and always, out of darkness and into your marvelous light. Amen.

John van de Laar

The Epiphany proclaims that the child Jesus belongs to and is given to the whole world as its Savior. With the Magi, the world brings to him its variety of gifts: its culture, its many facets, its different identities. And we here, like people from other nations, bring him the gift of ourselves: our faith, our fidelity, our love, as we meet him in prayer and in people ... especially in the poorest.

Reflection

- ♦ In what ways can we seek to follow the example of the Magi in our lives?
- ♦ How can we share the light of Jesus with those around us?

The Epiphany of our Lord happens today only where we allow the Lord to appear through our lives. The world cannot see Christ if it does not see him in us.

*Pope Francis compared our synodal journey in the Church
to the Magi's journey:*

Finally, the Magi return “by another way” (Mt 2:12).
They challenge us to take new paths.
Here we see the creativity of the Spirit
who always brings out new things.
That is also one of the tasks of the Synod:
to journey together and to listen to one another,
so that the Spirit can suggest to us new ways and paths to bring the Gospel to the hearts of those who are distant, indifferent, or without hope, yet continue to seek what the Magi found: “a great joy” (Mt 2:10).

Let us remember in our prayers:

our students returning to their next semester of college ... our students and teachers returning to Bishop McNamara Catholic School and to all our local grade schools and high schools.

O Lord, we thank you for the rest and joy of this holiday break. As our young people and little ones return to school, we ask for your presence to fill their classrooms and their minds. Grant them focus, diligence, and a love for learning. Protect them from distractions, unkind words, and harmful behaviors. Help them make good choices, be good friends, and let their light shine.

Give their administrators, teachers and staff members patience, wisdom, and energy. Help them inspire students and meet them where they are.

Grant their parents strength and discernment to support their children. May this new term be a time of growth, purpose, and joy, bringing us all closer to you. We ask all this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.
