For All our beloved dead, we pray to the Lord.

A Prayer for November

Grant, O Lord,
that my own heart may be touched, as yours is, at the passing of all souls into eternal life.
You experienced deep and loving relationships, too,
and wept at the death of your friend, Lazarus.
So, with great hope and confidence,
I pray for all my loved ones and friends who are no longer here with me.
I know that it is in our memories that our loved ones live on, and so I will remember.

My remembering has made me cry.
Bless my tears, Lord, as a source of your compassion.
My remembering has made me laugh.
Bless my laughter as an avenue for my joy.
My memories remind me of the guilty times:
those 'I wish I would have' and 'if only I could have' times.
Bless my guilt, Lord, as a channel for my learning.

My remembering has given me new strength.
Bless that strength as the movement of your Spirit.
My remembering has brought me healing.
Bless that healing as an outpouring of your love.
My remembering takes me down roads I walked with my loved one.
Bless the road I now walk and bless those who walk with me,
offering companionship and strength when mine falter.

Loving and Merciful God,
keep me always in the knowledge that you travel with me – mm
God the Father with outstretched arms of love,
God the Son who enters the depths of my pain,
and God the Holy Spirit who heals my aching heart. Amen.

Today we celebrate All Saints' Day.
This is one of the major feasts of the Church year.
On this day, we thank God
for the entire Communion Of Saints:
the faithful from every time and place,
including those whose names the whole church knows and those known only to God
and to the people who loved them.
Who will you be remembering?

Thank You, Envelope Number 1080, to our Bulletin Sponsor of the Week!

Thank You for your continued and generous support of our Parish!

Let us pray for a safe and abundant Harvest.

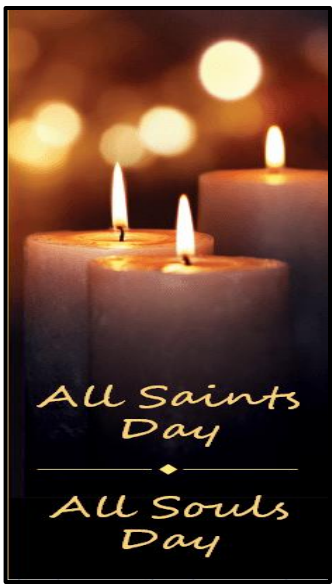

Pope Leo's global prayer intention for November 2026:
For "the prevention of suicide"
and for those living in darkness and despair.
Let us pray that "those who are struggling with suicidal thoughts might find the support, care, and love they need in their community, and be open to the beauty of life."

Intención de oración universal del Papa León para noviembre de 2026:
Por «la prevención del suicidio» y por quienes viven en la oscuridad y la desesperación.
Recemos para que «aquellos que luchan contra pensamientos suicidas encuentren el apoyo, el cuidado y el amor que necesitan en su comunidad, y se abran a la belleza de la vida».
