THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

JUNE 7, 2026

Life for the World

Lord Jesus Christ,
you ask us to be your body for the life of the world.

Nourish us with your Word of Life.
Give us your body to eat and your wine of joy to drink
that we may become more like you.

May we learn from you to live,
no longer for ourselves only,
but for God and for the people around us.

Make us of one mind and heart,
that the world may recognize that you are alive in us.
Be our Lord, now and forever.
Amen.

Liturgy Alive

In the incarnation, God takes on human flesh:
 in Jesus, in the Eucharist, and in all who are sincere in faith.
 The incredible power and mercy that came into our world,
 in Jesus, is still with us, at least if we choose to activate it.

We are the Body of Christ.
 What Jesus did for us, we can do for each other.
 Our love and forgiveness are the cords
 that connect our loved ones to God, to salvation,
 and to the community of saints,
 even when they are no longer walking the path of explicit faith.

Too good to be true? Yes, surely.
 But how else to describe the mystery of the incarnation!

Fr. Ron Rolheiser, OMI

For an algorithm, an error is a flaw to be corrected;
 for a person, however, an error
 can be a catalyst for profound change.
 A person's future is not calculable,
 but depends on one's freedom –
 elevated by the inexhaustible grace of God –
 and on the relationships cultivated.
