2012 PROPRIETARY BLEND

The 2012 Proprietary Blend has all the profound complexity and elegance we strive for. A nose with spicy aromas of blackberry, cassis, star anise and toasty notes of French oak. The rich flavors in the mid-palate are consistent with the aromas. The acidity is bright and the finish quite long. There is a litheness yet depth of flavor which makes this great blend so memorable. Only 100 cases produced.

Recommendation: The tannins are silky making it approachable now but also able to age effortlessly for at least 12 years.
