2nd Sunday in OT —January 18, 2026

Brothers and sisters,

This week we began the season of Ordinary Time. The word ordinary is rooted in the word ordinal or numbered. It does not mean "unspecial" or "usual." And certainly, this is true for us, as a parish, as there is nothing that is usual about this time, and it is quite special.

To begin, we have baptisms scheduled back to back weekends, which brings us to our goal of three people being baptized as parishioner prior to Easter!

But let's not stop there. I am hopeful that there will be another four baptisms before Easter, as there are a few more babies to be born, and a couple of people who have inquired about baptism. So this is a very special time for us.

In addition to adding new members through baptism, I walked into the office today and the first thing I was told is that we had two new families register in the parish! So this is an exciting time for us as we seek to welcome new members into our parish community. It is a testament to the way in which our community welcomes people, engages in worship, and lives out its discipleship.

Of course we cannot rest on our laurels. Each of us needs to continue the work of deepening our relationship with Jesus Christ on a daily basis, and each of us needs to actively engage in the mission to make disciples of all nations. If you have ideas as to how we can accomplish these tasks, please share them with me. I am eager to hear your ideas. This can include ideas for new ministries, catechesis, books to recommend, etc. The best way to share ideas with me is via email (bcarpenter@stanislauskostka.org).

Peace,

Fr. Brian
