CHURCH OF THE HOLY GHOST

WHY TRUST A GOD I CANNOT SEE?

The Catholic Response to Faith and Trust in the Invisible

One of the most fundamental questions in human experience is why we should trust in God, especially when we cannot see Him with our physical eyes.

In a world driven by tangible evidence, instant gratification, and visible proof, the idea of trusting an unseen God may feel counterintuitive.

However, from a Catholic perspective, trust in God is not only reasonable but deeply rooted in the understanding of God's nature, His revelation, and the lived experience of faith throughout history.

1. FAITH AS A VIRTUE BEYOND SIGHT

The Catholic Church teaches that faith is a theological virtue—a supernatural gift that enables us to believe in God and all that He has revealed, even though we cannot see Him.

Hebrews 11:1 offers a profound definition of faith: "Faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen."

In other words, faith gives us a kind of certainty, not based on physical evidence, but on the trustworthiness of God who reveals Himself in various ways.

The demand that God must "earn" our trust is, in essence, a call to understand why we should believe in Him in the first place.

Unlike human relationships where trust is often earned through observable actions, our trust in God is built on His revealed character and the testimony of His works throughout salvation history.

The Catholic perspective teaches that trust in God is both a response to His invitation and an acknowledgment of His perfect nature, which surpasses human limitations.

2. THE INVISIBLE GOD WHO MAKES HIMSELF KNOWN

Although we cannot see God with our physical eyes, the Catholic faith holds that God continually reveals Himself in many ways.

A. Revelation Through Creation

St. Paul writes in Romans 1:20, "For since the creation of the world, God's invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature—have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made, so that people are without excuse."

Creation itself is a reflection of God's existence, power, and beauty.

The complexity of the universe, the order of nature, and the moral law within us all point toward a Creator.

The visible world, then, becomes a "book" through which we can encounter the invisible God.

B. Revelation Through Jesus Christ

The ultimate revelation of God comes through the Incarnation of Jesus Christ. In Christ, God made Himself visible and approachable.

As the Gospel of John affirms, "No one has ever seen God; but the one and only Son, who is himself God and is in closest relationship with the Father, has made him known" (John 1:18).

Jesus' life, death, and resurrection are the fullest expressions of God's love for humanity, and His teachings continue to provide a roadmap for living in trust.

The historical reality of Jesus' life on earth, documented in Scripture and attested to by countless witnesses, offers a tangible sign of God's desire to be in relationship with us.

To trust God, then, is to trust the person of Jesus, who not only lived among us but also demonstrated God's love through sacrificial actions.

3. TRUST ROOTED IN GOD'S CHARACTER AND PROMISES

From a Catholic perspective, God does not need to "earn" our trust in the same way humans do, because His character is perfect, unchanging, and completely trustworthy.

Trusting God is not an arbitrary leap but is rooted in His fidelity and His promises throughout history.

A. God's Covenant with Humanity

One of the defining characteristics of God in the Bible is His covenantal faithfulness.

From the Old Testament to the New, God enters into covenants with His people, promising to be their God and to protect and bless them if they remain faithful to Him.

These covenants (e.g., with Noah, Abraham, Moses, and ultimately through Jesus) reveal a God who keeps His promises and desires a relationship with humanity.

When we look at salvation history, we see a God who has repeatedly acted for the good of His people, even when they have failed Him.

B. Trust in God's Providence

Catholics believe that God's providence—His guiding hand in the world—continues to operate in all things, even when we cannot see it.

We may not always understand why things happen, but we trust that God, in His infinite wisdom, is guiding history and our lives toward ultimate good.

This trust does not eliminate suffering or hardship, but it provides a deeper assurance that God is at work, even when His presence is not immediately visible.

4. TRUST BASED ON PERSONAL EXPERIENCE AND THE TESTIMONY OF SAINTS

Faith is not just an abstract concept but is deeply personal and experiential.

Many Catholics come to trust God through personal encounters, prayer, and the sacraments.

God often reveals Himself in the quiet moments of life—in prayer, in the Eucharist, in the lives of others—where His presence can be felt, even if not seen.

The Catholic Church also looks to the saints as models of faith and trust in God.

These men and women, who lived ordinary lives marked by extraordinary trust in God, offer powerful testimonies of how God can be trusted even in the darkest moments.

Saints like St. Teresa of Avila, St. John of the Cross, and St. Therese of Lisieux all experienced profound periods of spiritual dryness, where they felt distant from God, yet they continued to trust in His love and faithfulness.

Their witness encourages Catholics to trust in God, even when He seems hidden.

Example:

St. John of the Cross speaks of the "dark night of the soul," a period of intense spiritual trial where the soul feels abandoned by God.

Yet, he teaches that this "dark night" is actually a form of purification, where God is drawing the soul closer to Himself by stripping away attachments. Trusting God in this time leads to deeper intimacy with Him

5. THE EUCHARIST:

The Visible Sign of the Invisible God

For Catholics, the Eucharist is the "source and summit" of the Christian life (CCC 1324).

In the Eucharist, Catholics believe that the bread and wine truly become the Body and Blood of Christ, even though they retain their appearance.

The Eucharist is a profound mystery where the unseen God makes Himself present in a tangible, sacramental way.

It is a reminder that God is always with His people, nourishing them and inviting them to deeper trust in His love and mercy

Example:

The Eucharist is a moment where faith and trust come together.

Although the transformation of the bread and wine into Christ's Body and Blood is unseen, Catholics trust in Christ's words: "This is my body... This is my blood" (Matthew 26:26-28).

This act of faith in the Eucharist reinforces the broader trust in God's unseen presence in our lives.

6. TRUST IS A RELATIONSHIP, NOT A TRANSACTION

It is important to recognize that trust in God is not a transactional demand that He must fulfill before we believe in Him.

Trust, from a Catholic perspective, is a relational response to the God who has already proven His love through the Incarnation, the Cross, and the Resurrection.

Like any relationship, trust grows over time, through prayer, reflection, and the lived experience of God's faithfulness in our lives.

God invites us into a relationship of love and trust, but He does not force it.

Trust is a free response to His grace, one that deepens as we grow in our understanding of His goodness, mercy, and care for us.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church affirms that "faith is a personal adherence of man to God" (CCC 150). It is an ongoing act of trust, not based on sight, but on love and fidelity.

CONCLUSION:

Trusting the God We Cannot See

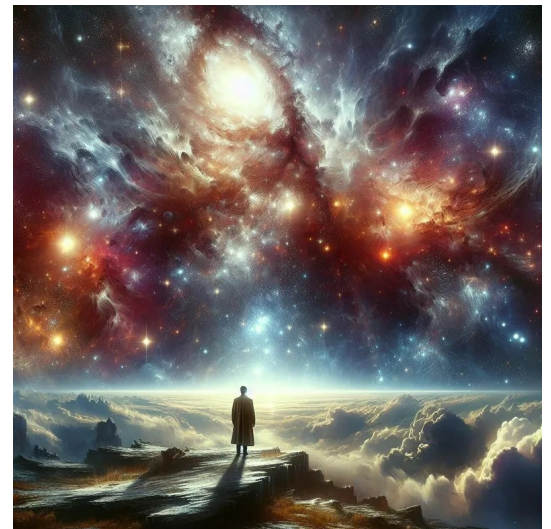

Trusting in a God we cannot see may be challenging in a world that values the tangible and the visible, but the Catholic faith offers profound reasons for this trust.

God's revelation through creation, Scripture, the Incarnation, and the Eucharist provide ample testimony to His trustworthiness.

His faithfulness in salvation history, the witness of the saints, and our personal experiences of grace all point to a God who is not distant but intimately involved in our lives.

In the end, trust in God is not about waiting for Him to "earn" our confidence; it is about responding to the love He has already shown us. It is a relationship of faith, hope, and love that leads to peace and fulfillment, even in the midst of uncertainty.

As Catholics, we are called to trust that the unseen God is always with us, guiding us toward eternal life in His presence.

DISCIPLES MAKING DISCIPLES

MAKE: A PASTORAL LETTER FOR THE PEOPLE OF THE DIOCESE OF JOLIET

In October, Bishop Hicks released his Pastoral Letter: MAKE to the people of our Diocese. Your Discipleship Team here at Holy Ghost are carefully reading the document to identify areas we are already tending to and areas we need to expand as disciples.

In the coming months I will quote sections of the letter in the bulletin and newsletter so that all parishioners can become familiar with it and know how our parish is responding. As you read these articles, please feel free to reach out to me with additional ideas for the staff and discipleship team to consider.

From Bishop Hicks: "If we are to grow as a thriving vibrant Church, one serious about passing on the faith to future generations, we must move from maintenance to mission. To make this shift, I have invited everyone to follow a vision focused on three essential paths summarized in five words: Catechesis, Evangelization, and Faith into Action."

The discipleship team began with CATECHESIS to name how we are currently supporting it in our parish. We need to remember that catechesis puts us in touch with the person of Jesus and is a lifelong journey which engages our heads and our hearts. The parish has a responsibility to support growth and knowledge in one's faith from womb to tomb.

At Holy Ghost, we have Faith Formation for grade school children as well as sessions for their parents; OCIA for those wanting to become full members of our church; a yearly Parish Mission; Soup and Scripture; Vacation Bible School; seasonal Prayer Services; distribute books on the faith at Christmas and a huge variety of courses for adults and teens over the past 5 years:

Discovering Christ
Following Christ
Sharing Christ
Metanoia
Jesus, the Way, the Truth and the Life
Be Formed
No Greater Love
Mary...a Biblical Journey with the Blessed Mother
Boundless Compassion
When You Pray
A Biblical Walk Through the Mass
The Rescue Project.

While it seems like we may be offering quite a bit, we know that we need many different offerings to meet the needs of our diverse community. Many parishioners join us during the Fall and Lenten courses. We encourage everyone to join with your fellow parishioners to grow in faith and community through catechesis! What would you like to see offered in the future? One suggestion was a weekly scripture study on the Gospel of the week. What would you like offered? We look forward to your suggestions as we implement Bishop Hicks' Pastoral Letter: MAKE

Questions for Reflection on this first part of the letter:

- How have I personally experienced God's love for me?
- Has my understanding of God's love changed over the years? How?

FAITH FORMATION

November is the month we celebrate All Saints Day and All Souls Day. The All Saints Day feast is celebrated on November 1. All Saints Day had its beginnings in the fifth and sixth centuries and it celebrates all those Saints, canonized or not, who enjoy the happiness of heaven. This may include not only those declared Saints by the church, but also our relatives and friends. By the 10th-11th century, St. Odilo of Cluny, a French abbot, officially established November 2 as a day to pray for the faithful departed. All Soul's Day isn't just about sadness for our losses, it's a time to pray for the souls of our loved ones and all the faithfully departed. Catholics believe in the power of prayer, charity and Mass to help souls on their journey to eternal life. On this day try to attend Mass and offer the Eucharist for the souls of the departed, visit cemeteries, perform acts of charity and offer prayers for the deceased.

As we draw close to Thanksgiving Day we need to thank God for all of our blessings and reach out to those in need. Our food drive is ongoing and can use your help to "assist" those in need. The items are taken to "The Center" at 206 N. Wood Dale Rd. by the Holy Ghost Knights of Columbus. Non-perishable canned, boxed and bagged food items may be placed on the shelving unit in the gym. Please bring items such as tuna, canned meat, canned vegetables, peanut butter, jelly, pasta or noodles, spaghetti sauce, cereal, oatmeal, canned soup, canned vegetables, mac and cheese, pancake mix, pancake syrup, canned fruit, flour, salt, sugar, cooking oil, crackers, brownie mixes, cake mixes, dried beans, rice, noodle or rice sauce packages, ketchup, mustard, mayonnaise, bottled salad dressing, paper towels, toilet paper, laundry detergent, etc. Just imagine if everyone reading this just brings one or two items each week, our bins will be overflowing! To the extent you are able to "assist" those in need, please remember to bring items and place them in the bins in the gym.

"Men lose all the material things they leave behind them in this world, but they carry with them the reward of their charity and the alms they give. For these, they will receive from the Lord the reward and recompense they deserve." -St. Francis of Assisi

Fannie May

PREMIUM CHOCOLATIER SINCE 1920

FUNDRAISING 2025

We're kicking off our Fannie May Fundraiser to support our Faith Formation program—and we need every parishioner to get involved!

Fannie May flyer and order forms are available in the vestibules, welcome center and the parish office. Use the forms to help gather orders from friends, family, coworkers, and neighbors. This is a simple (and sweet!) way to help raise funds for our program, including materials, retreats, and special events that help our children grow in faith.

Why This Matters:

For every sale made, our Faith Formation program receives 30% back—that's a big impact with each box of chocolate sold! Although these items may occasionally be available at a lower price in stores, purchasing through our fundraiser ensures that 30% of each sale directly supports our parish Faith Formation Program.

- All order forms and payments are due by Sunday, November 16.
- Orders will arrive just in time for the holidays—perfect for gift-giving!
- Pick up is Sunday, December 14.

Your participation truly makes a difference, and we're grateful for your continued support. Let's make this fundraiser a success for our kids and our parish community! If you have any questions, feel free to contact the parish office.

OUR PARISH'S
GIVING TREE

The Giving Tree – Share the Joy of Christmas!

Our parish Giving Tree will be up the weekend of November 29 & 30! Each tag on the tree represents someone in need within our community this Christmas season. We invite you to take a tag that weekend and return your wrapped gift with the tag attached by December 6 & 7.

Your generosity helps bring the light of Christ to families who might otherwise go without. Together, we can make this Advent season one of hope, love, and joy for others. Thank you for being part of this beautiful tradition of giving!

A Prayer to Come Home to Mass

Loving God, You never stop calling us to be close to You. Open our hearts to hear Your gentle invitation to return to Your table. Heal whatever keeps us away, and remind us that there's always a place for us in Your house. May we find peace, hope, and belonging as we gather again in the celebration of the Mass. Amen.
