MISCONCEPTIONS OF THE DIVINITY AND HUMANITY OF JESUS CHRIST:

The dual nature of Jesus Christ as fully divine and fully human is a core tenet of Christian theology, particularly within Catholicism.

However, misunderstandings about this doctrine can lead to confusion about the true nature of Christ.

Here are some key misconceptions that clarify what the divinity and humanity of Jesus Christ are not.

1. JESUS IS NOT HALF DIVINE AND HALF HUMAN

One common misconception is that Jesus is a blend of divine and human qualities, akin to a hybrid being. This is incorrect.

The Church teaches that Jesus is fully God and fully man—two distinct natures united in one Person, the Second Person of the Holy Trinity.

This doctrine is articulated in the Council of Chalcedon (451 AD), which affirms that Christ's two natures coexist without confusion, change, division, or separation.

2. JESUS DID NOT CEASE TO BE DIVINE IN HIS HUMANITY

Another misconception is that Jesus, during His earthly life, temporarily relinquished His divinity or that He became less divine. This is not true.

The divinity of Christ was not diminished by His incarnation.

Rather, Jesus' divine nature remained intact while He assumed a human nature.

His divine attributes—such as omniscience, omnipotence, and omnipresence—were fully present, though not always visibly manifested during His earthly ministry (Philippians 2:6-7).

3. JESUS IS NOT JUST A GREAT TEACHER OR PROPHET

Some view Jesus merely as a moral teacher or a prophet, dismissing His divine claims.

This perspective undermines the core belief that Jesus is the Son of God.

While Jesus indeed taught profound moral truths and prophesied about God's kingdom, His identity as the Savior and God incarnate sets Him apart from all other teachers and prophets (John 14:6).

C.S. Lewis famously argued that one cannot simply regard Jesus as a great moral teacher because of His claims to divinity; one must recognize Him as Lord, liar, or lunatic.

4. JESUS DID NOT EXPERIENCE HUMAN LIFE AS AN OBSERVER

It is a misconception to think that Jesus experienced humanity as a detached observer or that His divine nature insulated Him from genuine human experiences.

The Gospels reveal that Jesus fully engaged in human life, experiencing hunger, sorrow, temptation, and ultimately, death (Hebrews 4:15).

He empathizes with our weaknesses, having shared in the fullness of human existence.

His suffering in the Garden of Gethsemane (Matthew 26:36-46) exemplifies His deep emotional and physical engagement with humanity.

5. JESUS' HUMANITY IS NOT INFERIOR TO HIS DIVINITY

Some may mistakenly perceive Jesus' human nature as somehow lesser or secondary to His divine nature.

In truth, both natures hold equal importance in the mystery of Christ.

The humanity of Jesus is integral to our salvation; His life, death, and resurrection demonstrate the profound union of the divine and human (John 1:14).

This union emphasizes that human existence is elevated through Christ, not diminished.

6. THE DUAL NATURE OF CHRIST IS NOT A MODERN INVENTION

There is a misconception that the Church's understanding of Jesus' dual nature evolved over time or is a modern construct.

In reality, the understanding of Christ's dual nature was articulated in early Church councils, reflecting the teachings of the apostles and the early Church Fathers.

This doctrine has been central to Christian belief throughout history, upheld by various creeds, including the Nicene Creed.

7. JESUS IS NOT A SEPARATE ENTITY FROM GOD THE FATHER

Another misconception is that Jesus operates independently of God the Father or the Holy Spirit.

While Jesus is distinct as the Son, He is also consubstantial with the Father and the Holy Spirit, meaning He shares the same divine essence (John 10:30).

This Trinity doctrine underscores the unity and interdependence of the three Persons of the Godhead.

8. JESUS' HUMAN NATURE IS NOT A MASK FOR HIS DIVINITY

Some may think of Jesus' humanity as merely a façade or a disguise for His divine nature.

This view implies that His human experiences were not genuine or fully real.

However, Catholic teaching affirms that Jesus' human nature was authentic and complete.

He experienced life in its fullness, including emotions, relationships, and physical sensations, demonstrating the true reality of His humanity (John 11:35).

9. JESUS DID NOT JUST COME TO EARTH TO TEACH

Another misconception is that the primary purpose of Jesus' incarnation was to impart wisdom and ethical teachings.

While His teachings are vital and transformative, the Church teaches that Jesus came to redeem humanity through His passion, death, and resurrection (Matthew 1:21).

His mission was to reconcile humanity with God, fulfilling the prophecies of the Old Testament and offering salvation to all.

10. JESUS IS NOT SIMPLY A HUMAN BEING WITH EXTRAORDINARY ABILITIES

Some people may view Jesus as an exceptionally gifted human being endowed with remarkable powers, akin to a superhero.

This perspective diminishes His divine nature, treating Him as an extraordinary individual rather than the God-man.

In Catholic teaching, Jesus is both fully human and fully divine, with His miraculous works arising from His divine authority and nature (Matthew 28:18).

11. JESUS' DEATH WAS NOT MERELY SYMBOLIC

It is sometimes suggested that Jesus' death on the cross was merely a symbolic act meant to inspire others rather than a real event with profound salvific significance.

However, the Catholic faith holds that Jesus' crucifixion was a historical event that accomplished real atonement for sin (1 Peter 2:24).

His sacrifice was necessary for the redemption of humanity, fulfilling the covenant between God and His people.

12. JESUS IS NOT A MYTHOLOGICAL FIGURE

Some may dismiss Jesus as a myth or a legend akin to figures in ancient folklore.

This view undermines the historical reality of Jesus' life, death, and resurrection.

The Catholic Church affirms that Jesus is a historical person whose existence is well-documented in various historical sources, including non-Christian writings.

The Incarnation is rooted in history, emphasizing the truth of God entering into human experience (1 John 1:1).

13. JESUS DID NOT EXPERIENCE SIN AS A HUMAN

Some people might think that because Jesus was human, He must have experienced sin in the same way that humans do.

However, the Catholic Church teaches that while Jesus was fully human, He was without sin (Hebrews 4:15).

His sinlessness is essential to His role as the perfect sacrifice for humanity's sins.

This aspect of His nature emphasizes His unique qualification to redeem humanity, as He represents both God and man without any moral failure.

14. JESUS IS NOT A FATHER FIGURE TO REPLACE GOD THE FATHER

Another misconception is that Jesus is merely a human figure meant to replace or overshadow God the Father.

This perspective can lead to a misunderstanding of the Trinity, where Jesus is seen as a separate or competing entity rather than a distinct Person within the one God.

In Catholic teaching, Jesus is eternally begotten of the Father and shares the same divine essence (John 1:14).

The relationship within the Trinity is one of unity and love, where Jesus reveals the Father's heart while maintaining His distinct personhood.

15. JESUS IS NOT JUST A HISTORICAL FIGURE TO BE STUDIED

Lastly, some view Jesus solely as a historical figure or a subject of academic study, reducing Him to a subject of intellectual debate without acknowledging His divine authority and ongoing relevance in the lives of believers.

This misconception ignores the belief in Jesus as the living Lord who actively engages with His followers through the Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:20).

For Catholics, Jesus is not only a figure from the past but an ever-present reality who invites believers into a personal relationship with Him.

CONCLUSION:

Embracing the Mystery of Christ

Understanding what the divinity and humanity of Jesus Christ are not helps clarify the profound mystery of the Incarnation.

As Catholics, acknowledging Jesus as both fully divine and fully human deepens our faith and enriches our relationship with Him.

This doctrine invites believers to recognize the depth of God's love and commitment to humanity, culminating in the mystery of salvation through Jesus Christ, who bridges the divine and human experience.

Come Spend an Hour with the Lord

Jesus invites us to spend time in His presence through Eucharistic Adoration. Join us Monday through Thursday from 7:00 a.m. to 8:00 a.m., concluding with Benediction.

In Eucharistic Adoration, we worship Christ truly present in the Blessed Sacrament. It is a time to pray, listen, reflect, and entrust our joys, concerns, and loved ones to the Lord. Whether you come with many intentions or simply to sit quietly with Jesus, He is always ready to welcome you.

The blessings of Adoration are abundant. Time before the Blessed Sacrament deepens our relationship with Christ, strengthens our faith, brings peace amid life's challenges, and renews our hope. It is an opportunity to receive the grace and strength needed to live as faithful disciples each day.

Everyone is welcome. Come for the entire hour or just a few moments. Jesus is waiting for you!

We are in a National Blood Shortage The next Holy Ghost Blood Drive is Sunday, September 27 after Sunday masses.

Every 2 seconds, someone in the world needs blood from surgery, trauma, cancer treatments, or chronic illnesses. Donating blood is one of the most impactful and selfless acts a person can do. And one donation can help 3 lives!

If, in the past you were told you cannot donate, it's likely you can now!

Certain blood types and genetic markers common in people of European heritage may better match to local patients with similar heritage.

Also you can donate if you have high blood pressure or diabetes, as long as your blood pressure and blood sugar are well-controlled.

Donating blood has health benefits for you, the donor, too. It can provide a free mini health check (automatic cholesterol for free) and foster a sense of community. It's a simple process that only takes about 40 minutes, including the pre-check and rest/snack period after.

DISCIPLESHIP

Part of the process of becoming Disciples is having a conversion experience.....a time (or times) when you know you encountered God. Words never adequately describe the encounter but somehow you know God was present in your life. When we know God's presence, our life is changed.

Since May, we have printed faith stories from Fr. Sam, our deacons and members of the parish who have known God's presence. The stories were all very different. I think we need to share our God stories so that others might open their eyes, ears and heart to find God in their lives. God is in the ordinary as well as the extra-ordinary...we just need to dare to be open to encountering Him.

Do you have a story you are willing to share? Please write it....size matters in our bulletin, so please keep it to one page. No more than 600 words. If you are not comfortable typing it, simply write it out and I will be glad to type it for you. If you want to meet with me, I would be also glad to listen to your story and help you organize it.

Whatever you decide, remember: Jesus told us to "GO and MAKE disciples." Making disciples requires us to share how we know God, Jesus or the Holy Spirit, here and now just like the original Disciples did.
