THE SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER
Today's Readings:

Acts 8:5-8, 14-17; Ps 66:1-7, 16, 20;
I Peter 3:15-18; John 14:15-21

Jesus is Giving You the Holy Spirit

In this Sunday's Gospel reading, Jesus tells us that the Holy Spirit is our "Advocate". Some scholars translate the word to "Counselor". In the original Greek, it means "called alongside". Notice that Jesus refers to our Advocate as the "Spirit of Truth". No matter what other people think about us, God always knows the truth. We judge ourselves more harshly than we should, and this is why we worry so much about how others are judging us. If we honestly examine our consciences, seek reconciliation with God for our sins during the Penance Rite at Mass or in the Sacrament of Confession, and strive to improve, then Jesus says to us what he said to other sinners: "I do not condemn you; go and sin no more." The Holy Spirit will always be with us when we need to be defended, telling us the truth about our goodness. Even when we sin, the Spirit of Truth defends us to our heavenly Judge: "Look, this precious child really does want to be holy." To us, the Spirit says, "Let me teach you how to grow in holiness and avoid this sin." And to others, the Spirit says: "If you love me, love this good friend of mine."
