The Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Today's Readings:

Genesis 18:1-10; Ps 15:1-5;
Colossians 1:24-28; Luke 10:38-42

Don't Worry, be Fearless

In this Sunday's Gospel reading, Jesus speaks to us about our anxieties and worries. Mary chose the "better part"; she didn't let anything distract her from being a disciple learning avidly from Jesus. When we make the time to put aside the busyness of life to sit quietly and learn from Jesus, we discover reasons why our worries aren't really so worrisome.

Only as we sit quietly at the feet of Jesus do we find hope that overcomes despair, peace that conquers anxiety, and wisdom that gets us through trials.

We cannot grow in holiness when we're not watching Jesus and learning from him how to be holy. We cannot love as he loves nor receive all the love he gives us unless we have a prayer life that includes quiet time alone with him, drinking up his lessons and his loving embrace. Prayers said while driving and while listening to homilies isn't enough.

Anxieties and worries are varying degrees of fear: We're afraid that something bad is going to happen. Even when there's a legitimate reason to worry, fear blocks our view of Jesus, because it turns us away from him. We need to recognize fear as a warning flag telling us to slow down, quiet down, and sit down with Jesus for a good discussion on whatever it is that's bothering us. He's got the answers, the encouragement, and the affirmation that will bring us peace!

Meet Our Extended Family Blessed Frederic Ozanam (Feast Day September 9)

Frederic was a Frenchman born in Milan, Italy in 1813. He was raised in Lyon, France in a devout Catholic family. When he was 15 years old Frederic struggled with doubts about his faith, but he was helped through them by a local priest. Frederic later went to Paris to study law, where he excelled in apologetics, and was known for fiercely defending his Catholic faith. One day another student challenged Frederic to consider what he could do to live out his faith, instead of just talking about it. Frederic was inspired by this challenge to gather a group of students and "go to the poor" as Jesus had done. It was this group of students, who went out to serve the poor and lonely, that eventually became the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. On June 23, 1841, Frederic married Amelie Soulacroix. Together they had a daughter. He remembered his wife on the 23rd of each month with flowers and a poem expressing his love for her. Frederic continued to serve the poor even while pursuing his academic work. He visited them in their homes and spent countless hours with them. Sadly, Frederic died at the age of 40. The St. Vincent de Paul Society is still active today and serves the poor around the world.

Family Challenge: Each day this week, compliment or encourage each person in your family.

Family Prayer: Help Me Be Still - This prayer can help us be more like Mary in today's Gospel.

I am so sorry, Lord, that in my hurrying and scurrying, I can often miss you at work before me, within me, in the majesty of creation and complexity of the created. I forget all you have done and continue to do, You restore and vindicate, redeem and rescue, in an economy in a timeline not our own. Help me be still, to become one with the Three, to move grounded in your power in your mercy, in your love in fullness of your truth. Even in my weakness, In my confusion In my anger, In my frustration, In my sorrow and shortsightedness, Help me simply to be For still, you are God. -By Rakhi McCormick of Rakstar Designs

For further information call the parish office AT 650-583-4131 X 1.

MEALS FOR OUR COSJ

As part of our ministry's ongoing support for our beloved priests, we are organizing a volunteer effort to provide meals for the Contemplatives of St. Joseph Monastery. This is a wonderful opportunity to give back and show gratitude for their tireless spiritual guidance and service. We are seeking volunteers to sign up and prepare or bring meals on specific days. Whether it's a homemade dish or something healthy picked up with love, your contribution makes a difference. If you can provide a meal, for approximately 5-6 people, once a month (or less) your donation will greatly help in keeping our costs lowered. Please call Fran in the parish office to get more details and to sign up for a day to provide nourishment and care for our priests.

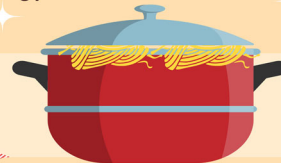

THANK YOU!
