July 27, 2025

The Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Readings:

Genesis 18:20-32; Ps 138:1-3, 6-8; Colossians 2:12-14; Luke 11:1-13

How to pray with Faith

In this Sunday's Gospel reading, Jesus teaches us how to pray with faith. Notice that his parable does not say that we can get everything we ask for. Not everything is good for us; the "bread" that runs as a theme through this scripture is the life of holiness. The "Bread of Life" is Jesus. The gift of the Holy Spirit, the Giver of Life, is a holy life. Notice also that the visitor in the parable is a friend of God, not a stranger, who wants to share the bread with another friend. This represents a baptized Christian who wants to share the friendship of God ("three loaves" — the Trinity) with others, but he or she is inadequate for the task.

When we knock on the door to God's heart seeking help for our inadequacies, the Father gives us his fully adequate Holy Spirit. And that's not all we get! Whenever we pray, this Holy Spirit connects us to the Father and to Jesus. Therefore, every prayer increases our holiness, brings us closer to God and empowers us to be more like Jesus. But holiness does not come quickly nor easily. We must be persistent in our prayer lives. We must continually rely on God's Spirit in order to resist temptations and grow in faith.

No matter what we ask God to share with us, including the material things that we need or desire, God wants to use it to nourish our souls. This is what we ask for when we pray, "Give us this day our daily bread."

Explore the Gospel as a family: Luke 11:1-13 – 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time – The Lord's Prayer, Further Teachings on Prayer, & The Answer to Prayer – Go to the link below to read the Gospel as a family and talk about the questions in the family chat. <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings/072725.cfm>

Family Chat: In today's Gospel, Jesus is teaching us how to pray. How do you like to pray? Reflect and discuss the words of the Our Father given to us by Jesus; what do these words mean.

Liturgy Link: In today's Gospel, Jesus taught his followers the "Our Father." We pray this prayer each time we celebrate Mass. Listen for the Our Father prayer at Mass.

Meet Our Extended Family: Blessed Solanus Casey (Feast Day July 30) Bernard Francis Casey was one of sixteen children born to Irish immigrants in Wisconsin. The Casey family were devout Catholics who prayed daily and attended Mass as often as they could. It was no surprise when Bernard decided to devote his life to God as a priest. For years, he struggled with his studies in seminary until he was told he would be better off joining a religious order. Bernard left Wisconsin to join the Order of Friars Minor Capuchin. He was accepted into the order at the age of 33 and, taking the name Solanus after St. Francis Solano, was ordained a "simplex priest," meaning he could not hear confessions or preach doctrinal sermons. Still, Fr. Solanus loved to celebrate Mass. He served as a porter, answering the door and hearing people's needs. Fr. Solanus was recognized as a holy man, spending much of his time feeding the poor and caring for the sick. Many of the people he prayed for were. He never turned people away when they wanted to speak to him. Many miracles have been attributed to Fr. Solanus Casey's intercession. On July 31, 1957, Fr. Solanus Casey passed away. His last words reportedly were "I give my soul to Jesus Christ." Fr. Solanus was beatified on November 18, 2017, at Ford Field in Detroit. His tomb is located inside the Solanus Casey Center in Detroit. Today, people continue to ask Blessed Solanus for help by writing their prayer requests on a piece of paper and placing it on his tomb.

Family Challenge: Blessed Solanus was known for saying, "Thank God ahead of time!" This week, begin each day by thanking God for what your day will hold.

Family Prayer: Prayer for the Canonization of Blessed Solanus Casey - O God, I adore you. I give myself to you. May I be the person you want me to be, and may your will be done in my life today. I thank you for the gifts you gave Father Solanus. If it is your will, bless us with the Canonization of Father Solanus so that others may imitate and carry on his love for all the poor and suffering of our world. As he joyfully accepted your divine plans, I ask you, according to your will, to hear my prayer for... [state your intention] through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

"Blessed miraculously cured of their illnesses; people would line up for blocks to see Fr. Solanus be God in all His Designs." Imprimatur: The Most Reverend Allen H. Vigneron, Archbishop of Detroit, May 2017

MEALS FOR OUR COSJ

As part of our ministry's ongoing support for our beloved priests, we are organizing a volunteer effort to provide meals for the Contemplatives of St. Joseph Monastery. This is a wonderful opportunity to give back and show gratitude for their tireless spiritual guidance and service. We are seeking volunteers to sign up and prepare or bring meals on specific days. Whether it's a homemade dish or something healthy picked up with love, your contribution makes a difference. If you can provide a meal, for approximately 5-6 people, once a month (or less) your donation will greatly help in keeping our costs lowered. Please call Fran in the parish office to get more details and to sign up for a day to provide nourishment and care for our priests.

THANK YOU!

The COSJ-Third Order will have a second general Q & A for those who are interested to know more about the Contemplatives of St. Joseph Third Order, on Sat. Aug. 16th after the 5 pm Mass at Our Lady of Fatima room in the Parish Center. For more information, please contact Betti@mdssf.org

COR Please join the men of the parish at their next COR meeting on August 2nd in the San Lorenzo Ruiz Hall at 6:30 pm. All men 18 and over are invited to an evening of prayer, formation and fellowship, led by Fr. Andrew Berinyuy, S.C.P. We will discuss the challenges men face today as husbands, fathers, grandfathers, sons and siblings and how spirituality plays a role in these relationships. Please bring a small dish as potluck. For further information call the parish office AT 650-583-4131 X 1.
