July 6, 2025
The Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Today's Readings:

Isaiah 66:10-14; Ps 66:1-7, 16, 20;
Galatians 6:14-18; Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

The Christian call of Collaboration

In this Sunday's Gospel reading, Jesus tells his disciples to ask the "Master" (God the Father) of the "harvest" (conversion to Christ) to send out more laborers" (evangelizers). And in the next breath, he tells them that they are the laborers and that they must get busy: "Go on your way," he says.

When you think of evangelizers in the Catholic Church, who comes to mind first? Most of us think of priests, and we all know that we need more priests. New vocations in Western societies are still way too few to compensate for the elderly ones who are retiring and dying.

Do you pray for an increase of vocations? Good, but that's only part of what Jesus is asking us to do.

"Go on your way," he says to all of us, "and use your gifts, your talents, and your skills to assist in the harvest.

Jesus has always been collaborative. The number of laborers for the mission of the Church will only be sufficient when we all join the effort — clergy, religious, and laity — working together with our separate and unique talents and skills, humbly assisting each other as members of the same team.

Our prayers for an increase of consecrated vocations are answered from within collaborative ministry. Clergy and religious are called to be good role models, which will attract new vocations, but the laity are called to serve God with the same zeal and holiness that we expect from priests, because out of families who serve come the holy priests and religious who serve.

Good News Ministries 2025

Please pray for Aida, Marlon, Fr. Andrew and our wonderful Mater Dolorosa Choir as they are preparing for their pilgrimage tour in Italy. They have been invited to sing at St. Peter's Church in the Vatican which is a very rare opportunity and shows how much God is blessing their hard work and faithful hearts. We are so proud of our beloved Mater Dolorosa Choir!

Father Vito

Explore the Gospel as a family: Luke 24: 46-53 – The Mission of the Seventy-two & Return of the Seventy-two – Go to the link below to read the Gospel as a family and talk about the questions in the family chat.
<https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings/070625-Sunday.cfm>

Family Chat: What does Jesus mean when he says, "The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few"? Jesus needed help to proclaim the kingdom of God. If Jesus asked you to share the good news with others, would you? Why or why not? Why do you think the disciples were happy when they came back from their mission?

Liturgy Link: In today's Gospel, Jesus instructs the disciples to wish peace upon the households they visit. Before the celebration of Holy Communion, we offer each other the sign of peace. How many times is the word peace mentioned at Mass?

Meet Our Extended Family St. Dulce Lopes Pontes (Feast Day August 13)

Born to an upper-middle class family in Salvador, Bahia, Brazil, Maria Rita de Souza Brito Lopes Pontes wanted for nothing. After her mother died, Maria went to live with her aunts. When Maria was 13, her aunts took her to visit the poorest areas of her city, where Maria was deeply moved by the suffering she witnessed. She began dedicating her life to helping the poor and sick. She was known to invite the poor and sick to come to her home, where she and her neighbors could care for them until she entered the Missionary Sisters of the Immaculate Conception of the Mother of God. Upon taking her vows, Maria took the name Sister Dulce, after her mother. She continued to spend her time helping the poor and destitute. She went on to establish the first workers union in Salvador, a school for working-class children and worked to offer medical assistance, food, and shelter to the poor. In 1949, Sister Dulce was granted permission from her superior to offer medical care in her convent's chicken yard, which she converted into a makeshift hospital. Eleven years later, the chicken yard would be transformed into Saint Anthony's Hospital. In 1959, the Charitable Works Foundation of Sister Dulce was formed. It consolidated many of Sister Dulce's programs into a major Brazilian health and social services organization that is still in operation today.

Family Challenge: From today's Gospel, we can see that Jesus and his disciples faced many challenges as they traveled. However, they proceeded with fortitude to proclaim the kingdom of God. Fortitude is the virtue that gives courage to follow Jesus even when it is difficult. Practice the virtue of fortitude this week.

Family Prayer: Help Us Follow You – Make the sign of the cross and invite each family member to pray spontaneously in their own words about being sent out as disciples and what help they need from God. Close with this prayer:

Almighty God, our hope and our strength, without You we falter. Help us to follow Christ and to live according to Your will. Who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen. This content is courtesy of www.52sundays.com produced by the Archdiocese of Detroit.
