ETCOC Has New President

Eastchester Tuckahoe Chamber of Commerce (ETCOC) has elected a new President. We thank Kevin Kelly of Beacon Bank for serving as President since July 2022. We appreciate the time he has contributed and his dedication and commitment to this organization. Kevin will remain on the board as Past President.

Valon Nikci has been named President. He is the owner/broker of Link NY Realty, serving clients across Westchester, NYC, and Fairfield County (CT). Valon is also a committee member of Congressman George Latimer's Jobs and Economy Task Force, a board member of the Mount Vernon Chamber of Commerce, and Treasurer and board member of the Bronxville Rotary Club. Since 2022, he has been a member of Forbes Councils and remains actively involved with multiple local organizations and community initiatives. As Chamber President, Valon looks forward to strengthening partnerships, expanding member engagement, and supporting the continued success of local businesses. Valon will begin his role as president on July 1, 2026.

Networking at Mamma Assunta Ristorante

Members and guests gathered for a delicious three course meal on June 17 at Mamma Assunta Ristorante in Tuckahoe. Since 1980 this restaurant has consistently brought us Abruzzese and Neapolitan dishes. The owners are Elio and Angelo Di Rosa, and Elio joined us for a few minutes to introduce himself.
