Oh What a Night!

ETCOC sponsored the town organized Lake Isle concert on Wednesday July 16. Faded Vinyl was the local cover band that entertained the crowd of 200+ with classic rock songs from the 60s, 70s, 80s, and 90s. Several members used this opportunity to promote their businesses by setting up a table with giveaways. Many thanks to the following members that donated items which were raffled off to the crowd:

Arthur Murray Dance Studio

Assisted Living Locators

Monarch Coopers Corner Senior Living

The Fountains at Riverview

Ribbon Cutting for Nana's Dim Sum & Dumplings

If you missed the ribbon cutting for Nana's Dim Sum & Dumplings, a new restaurant located at 709 White Plains Road in Scarsdale on July 8, it was spectacular! A very large group gathered to wish the new business good luck. A troupe of performers assembled in traditional dragon costumes and with drums and other percussion instruments rhythmically chanted to scare away the evil spirits and bring good luck. It was all very exciting and fun! We were then treated to delicious food and beverages. Check out the restaurant - you won't be disappointed.
