From our Pastor, Father Sam Ward

Dear St. Raymond's Family,

There was a scholar of the law who stood up to test Jesus and said,
"Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

Jesus said to him, "What is written in the law? How do you read it?"

He said in reply, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself."
He replied to him, "You have answered correctly; do this and you will live."

(Luke 10:25-28)

In last Sunday's Gospel, the scholar of the law adds "and with all your mind" to heart of Jewish teaching from Deuteronomy 6:7, the famous Shema Isreal (Hear, O Israel). This addition makes sense in the context of the Greco-Roman world of the time, imbued with these great philosophical traditions and the Wisdom Literature of the Old Testament.

In our times, many people seek rational proofs for the existence of God, how to explain the miracles in the Bible, and for unraveling the mysteries of science, technology, and the universe.

Fortunately, we have one of the preeminent sources to use both fides et ratio (faith and reason) to understand these complex ideas, concepts, and realities: Fr. Robert Spitzer, S.J., and his Magis Center for Faith & Reason. Fr. Spitzer, Jesuit priest and the former President of Gonzaga University, is based out of Christ Cathedral in the Diocese of Orange. Larry King used to have Fr. Spitzer on his talk show to debate Steven Hawking about matters of faith and science.

Magis Mission:

We exist to turn the rising tide of unbelief in our culture through contemporary, rational, and science-based evidence.

I place you and your family under the guidance and protection of our Blessed Mother Mary and St. Joseph. St. Raymond Nonnatus, pray for us.

Father Sam Ward

Welcome to St. Raymond ParishEstimada Familia de San Ramón,

Desde que llegué a la Iglesia de San Ramón hace poco más de dos años, he predicado y hablado sobre la práctica espiritual de la Lectio Divina en numerosas ocasiones. El pasado martes 11 de julio fue la Fiesta de San Benito de Nursia. Los monjes benedictinos, desde el siglo VI, han legado a la Iglesia esta práctica meditativa de orar con las Sagradas Escrituras.

Como recordarán, empiezo todas las Reuniones del Personal Parroquial y del Consejo de Finanzas con la Lectio Divina, generalmente usando el Evangelio del próximo domingo. Los Retiros Parroquiales y los Retiros de la Facultad y el Personal Escolar que he dirigido también han comenzado con la Lectio Divina. Como le recuerdo al personal a menudo, si no estamos orando primero, luego toda nuestras planificaciones y discusiones serán meramente esfuerzos humanos. Sin embargo, si primero estamos arraigados en Jesucristo y en las Sagradas Escrituras, especialmente en los Evangelios, entonces nuestro trabajo será verdaderamente espiritual.

La Lectio Divina implica la lectura lenta y meditativa de un breve pasaje de la Biblia. Esto se puede hacer individualmente, en pequeños grupos o incluso en grupos grandes. Lo recomiendo para familias, adaptándose a las edades de los niños presentes. El pasaje de las Escrituras se lee varias veces (lo ideal es de 2 a 4 veces), con períodos de meditación en silencio entre cada lectura. Después de la segunda lectura y tiempo de silencio, cada persona presente puede nombrar en voz alta la palabra o frase que le habla al corazón. Después de la tercera o cuarta lectura, cada persona puede compartir porque esa palabra o frase es significativa para sí mismo. La variedad y profundidad del compartir suele ser notable y espiritualmente nutritiva para todos los presentes.

Y los pongo bajo el amparo y protección de la Santísima Virgen María y San José. San Ramón Nonato, ruega por nosotros.

En el Corazón Sacratísimo de Jesucristo, Padre Samuel Ward

Saturday, September 27, 2025, 9am-6pm

Grief is not a disorder, a disease, or a sign of weakness. It is an emotional, physical, and spiritual necessity, the price you pay for love. The only cure for your grief is to grieve.
- Earl A. Grollman

There is a tremendous need for bereavement ministry. We hear stories of grief and trauma every day. But where do we find help to deal with our grief, to help with our mourning, to work through the pain and sadness? Unfortunately, there are very few places available.

The First Journeying Through Grief Bereavement Summit invites bereavement ministers, those interested in accompanying the grieving, and anyone who is interested in bereavement to join us. Resources will be available from organizations that provide help to those who have experienced the death of a child, the death of a spouse, the death of a loved one to suicide, and more.

Speakers will address topics such as what is bereavement, how to start a support group, pre-planning, working with mortuaries, planning Vigils and Funerals and more.

There will be time to meet others in the field of bereavement and make connections with the goal of reaching out to those in need.

The cost of $75 will cover a continental breakfast, lunch and all materials, supplies and resources. Doors open at 8:30am.

To register, please include your name, the name of your parish/organization, your role or area of interest and whatever else you want to share or ask.

Payment can be made by Zelle to (562) 631-8844. Please RSVP by Monday, September 15, 2025.

WE GRIEVE BECAUSE WE HAVE LOVED. - Johann Hari

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN Safe environment tips

Everyone that works and interacts with children should have clear boundaries in place. This can include rules like: staying in public view and avoiding isolated one-on-one situations with children and ensuring that two or more adults are always paired together to work with children, as well as other guidelines on appropriate physical contact. For the Archdiocese of Los Angeles's guidelines on how to interact with minors at our parishes, schools and ministries please visit <https://lacatholics.org/policies-and-procedures/>, and for more tips read the VIRTUS® article "When Boundaries Abound, Our Lives Can Flourish" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

Consejos para mantener un ambiente seguro

Todas las personas que trabajan e interactúan con niños deben establecer límites claros. Esto puede incluir normas como: permanecer a la vista del público y evitar situaciones aisladas con los niños, y asegurarse de que siempre haya dos o más adultos juntos para trabajar con los niños, así como otras directrices sobre el contacto físico apropiado. Para las directrices de la Arquidiócesis de Los Angeles sobre cómo interactuar con los menores en nuestras parroquias, escuelas y ministerios, visite <https://lacatholics.org/policies-and-procedures/> y para saber más sobre cómo establecer y mantener límites, lea el artículo en VIRTUS® "Cuando abundan los límites, nuestras vidas pueden florecer" (When Boundaries Abound, Our Lives Can Flourish) en lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.
