ANNAPOLIS NAVY GAME, TOUR AND MORE

Friday October 24-Sunday October 26, 2025

Your journey will include a stop in Havre De Grace for lunch and shopping. This charming, historic waterfront town has a lot to offer, including scenic views, museums, and a lively downtown area. The town is known for its rich maritime history, beautiful waterfront, and unique attractions including the Decoy Museum which we will visit. At the museum you will discover the art of decoy making and the waterfowling traditions that make Havre de Grace, Maryland the "Decoy Capital of the World!" After checking in to our Bethesda, MD hotel you will enjoy a dinner theater at Toby's. SATURDAY NIGHT FEVER transports you back to the era of disco balls, platform boots, and white suits. Burn, baby, burn! The following day you will enjoy a Navy game! The Navy game experience is a unique and highly spirited event that goes beyond a typical football game, encompassing rich traditions, pageantry, and a strong sense of patriotism. The atmosphere is electric with spirited tailgates and pep rallies. We will have a "pregame BBQ" of our own! Dinner included after the game before returning to the hotel. Day 3 Start your exploration of Annapolis: Museum Without Walls™ at the William Paca House and Garden. This five-part Georgian mansion was built in the 1760s for William Paca, one of Maryland's four Signers of the Declaration of Independence and the state's third Governor. Carefully restored by Historic Annapolis beginning in 1965, today it is recognized as one of the finest 18th-century homes in the country and a National Historic Landmark. Guided tours of the house, which features period furnishings and paintings, reveal the inner workings of an upper-class household in colonial and revolutionary Annapolis. Lunch on your own in the town of Annapolis before a tour of the Navy Academy.

The best way to truly experience the Naval Academy scenic grounds is to take a highly regarded Historical Walking Tour of the Yard. You will return early in the evening with wonderful memories of Patriotism and traditions.

Lancaster's Got it All Brewery, Buggy, Buchanan and more...

November 3-5, 2025

Day one will include a wonderful Farm to Table meal and wine tasting at the beautiful Mount Hope Estate. Check into the new Hershey Farm Resort Hotel before a fun interactive murder mystery dinner at Bubes Brewery. (and this place is haunted) Bubes Brewery has a rich history dating back to the mid-1800s. Founded by German immigrant Alois Bube, it evolved from a small brewery to a complex including a hotel and a restaurant, surviving both fire and Prohibition. The following day you will tour President John Buchanan's Wheatland Estate for a guided tour and gardens. You will travel both floors of the home and discuss the lives of Buchanan and his family that occupied the home. The tour is unique in that there are few room barriers, allowing visitors to stand in the spaces once frequented by a former president and his family. After the tour you will have free time for lunch and shopping at the Lancaster Central Market before a visit to an Amish Store. Finally, dinner at White Chimney's Founding Fathers for an evening with an easy walking tour through the 19th century Italianate garden. You will visit with the resident Scottish Highlander cows, donkey, and the comical goats or sit by the lily pond and watch the koi lazily swim among the water fountains. Following the time in the garden, you will enter the renovated tobacco barn for a beautifully catered meal. Day three enjoy a farm and cookie tour on an Amish buggy ride with a stop at a local farm. Before heading home, you will visit a Gourd Farm to see thousands of gourds in all shapes and sizes custom painted for your home and garden. Lunch included before ICECREAM! Make your own flavor at Turkey Hill Experience and enjoy an ice cream and iced tea tasting! What a sweet ending to a great getaway.

Christmas in a "European Castle" in the backyard of Philadelphia

Cairnwood Estate and Glencairn Museum (Christmas Castle)

Tuesday, December 16, 2025

Celebrate the season at Cairnwood Estate with a guided tour during their most sparkling time of the year! Discover the elegant rooms of the Estate with eight professionally decorated Christmas trees, twinkling balustrades, festive mantels over nine 1895 fireplaces, and the exhibition of period fashions, worn by the ladies of Cairnwood. Cairnwood Estate was designed by Carrère and Hastings in the Beaux Arts style. The meticulous decorative elements blend influences from classical Greek and Roman architecture with French Renaissance ideas. John Pitcairn's considerable fortune allowed him to build Cairnwood Estate in 1895 as a home for Gertrude and their children. You will enjoy a deluxe box lunch in the Garden House or Main house before a guided tour of the Glencairn Museum. Glencairn Museum hosts an annual "Christmas at Glencairn" event featuring the "World Nativities Exhibition". This exhibition showcases a diverse collection of nearly 50 nativity scenes from around the world, highlighting the various ways artists interpret this traditional Christmas display. For forty years (1940s to 1970s), the Raymond and Mildred Pitcairn family celebrated Christmas at Glencairn with a concert, a large three-part Nativity scene, a decorated tree that reached beyond the second-floor balcony, and a Christmas Day meal. This guided holiday tour visits different floors throughout the building, including the tower and main bedroom suite. Your guide will take you on a journey back through time to explore how the Pitcairn family celebrated Christmas in their 20th-century castle. At the conclusion of the tour, you can enjoy self-guided access to the World Nativities exhibition. Package includes motor coach transportation, driver's gratuity, lunch, guided tours, admissions, trip leader, games, prizes and snacks on the bus. 7:45 AM Celia Cruz Service Center 8:00 AM Target, RT 70, Brick 8:30 AM GSP Park and Ride Exit 98 5:00 PM
