ADJUDICATOR - ALISHA MORPHETT

Dancing from the age of 2 Alisha has over 30 years experience in the dance industry. Training in Classical Ballet, Jazz, Tap, Lyrical & Contemporary, as well as attending the Hunter School of Performing Arts for Dance. After graduating, Alisha's dance teaching career began. Studying a Certificate IV in Dance Teaching & Management and completing qualifications with the Australian Conservatoire of Ballet, Australian Teachers of Dance, Acro Dancer, Acrobatic Arts, AASCF Cheer & Tumbling, Glenn Wood Tap & Cert IV in Training and Assessing. With years of extensive knowledge, Alisha proudly teaches students in a recreational and elite program in all styles of dance. Alisha owns a small boutique studio in the Hunter Valley NSW, where she trains 90 dancers a week & has successfully won national titles, choreography awards, judges choice, highest scoring routines, most entertaining, dance bids to Vegas & more! A mother of 3 young children, Alisha is caring & nurturing and always strives to inspire her students to develop their own individual unique style, passion & delight for the creative arts! Alisha loves to pass on her professional advice, knowledge and encouragement to the dancers today in hopes to further develop their passion & love for performing.

PETER OXFORD PRESENTS
SHOWCASE

AUSTRALIAN DANCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

A female dancer is captured in a dynamic, mid-air pose. She is wearing a bright pink long-sleeved crop top, light blue denim jeans, and a grey bucket hat. Her hair is dark and appears to be in motion. She is looking towards the camera with a focused expression. The background is solid black, making the dancer and the gold text stand out.
