

Biography of Pastor Jerry Wayne Moore

Pastor Jerry Wayne Moore is a devoted servant of God, passionate preacher of the Gospel, and faithful shepherd of the congregation at Jerusalem Missionary Baptist Church in the great city of Bells.

In January 1999, Pastor Moore answered the divine call that God placed upon his life to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ. With humility and obedience, he stepped forward in faith, and on February 14, 1999, he delivered his first sermon entitled “What Road Are You On?”—a message that challenged listeners to examine their spiritual direction and commitment to Christ. That message marked the beginning of a preaching ministry that has touched countless lives.

Pastor Moore further prepared himself for ministry through his studies at American Baptist College, where he deepened his understanding of Scripture and strengthened his commitment to proclaiming the truth of God’s Word. Known for preaching the unadulterated Gospel, Pastor Moore stands firmly on biblical truth, proclaiming salvation through Jesus Christ with clarity, conviction, and compassion.

Within the community and among those who have heard him preach, Pastor Moore is affectionately known as “the Weeping Preacher.” This name reflects the deep compassion he carries for the lost and his heartfelt desire to see souls saved. It is not uncommon for emotion to fill his voice as he delivers God’s Word, demonstrating the burden he carries for the spiritual well-being of others. One phrase that members and listeners often hear from him is his heartfelt reminder: “Are you praying?”—a question that reflects his strong belief in the power and necessity of prayer.

As the proud pastor of Jerusalem Missionary Baptist Church, Pastor Moore leads with humility, wisdom, and a servant’s heart. His leadership emphasizes strong preaching, faithful discipleship, and a church family grounded in love, worship, and community outreach. Under his guidance, the church continues to serve as a spiritual beacon in Bells, Tennessee, “Touching Bells With Love as the church stands on the timeless principles of the Baptist faith.

Beyond the pulpit, Pastor Moore is a devoted family man. He is lovingly married to his wife, Alicia Moore, and together they share the blessings of five adult children and nine grandchildren, who remain a cherished part of their lives and legacy.

When he is not preaching or ministering, Pastor Moore enjoys spending time outdoors and working with his hands. His hobbies include landscaping, fishing, and restoring old vehicles, activities that reflect his appreciation for patience, craftsmanship, and the beauty of renewal.

Through decades of faithful ministry, Pastor Jerry Wayne Moore has remained committed to one central mission: preaching the Gospel, encouraging believers, and calling sinners to salvation through Jesus Christ. His life and ministry continue to reflect the heart of a shepherd who loves God, loves people, and faithfully proclaims the truth of the Gospel.