EXPLANATION OF SERVICES

EMBALMING: There is no New York State Law that requires embalming. Embalming is a policy of the memorial home when viewing is requested, when the remains travel by common carrier (air), or when the remains will be at the memorial home for longer than a twenty-four hour period. There are exceptions in the case of religious reasons.

CUSTODIAL CARE: A fee that is charged for the possession of the remains after the initial three hours, and is a per day charge.
"Custodial Care will not be charged on the days when embalming or other preparation of the remains occurs, visitation is held or a funeral service is conducted."

Taken from the General Price List format as approved by the FTC and the NYS Health Department.
IDENTIFICATION OF REMAINS: A five-to-ten-minute period for a small number of family members or their representatives to identify the deceased.

The identification of remains takes place in the funeral home. The unembalmed/unprepared remains are placed on a transfer cot for identification.

REGARDING OUTER INTERMENT RECEPTACLES

No New York State or Local Law requires you to purchase a receptacle to surround the casket or urn in the grave. However, many cemeteries require that you have a receptacle so that the grave will not sink. Either a burial vault or a grave liner will satisfy these requirements.

REGARDING THIRD PARTY CREMATION URNS/CONTAINERS/JEWELRY

The Allen Memorial Home will NOT accept or fill cremation urns/containers/jewelry purchased through a third party.

WARRANTIES

The Allen Memorial Home makes no representations or warranties about the Caskets, Outer Interment Receptacles, Cremation Caskets, Alternative Containers, Urns or Urn Vaults, other than those made by the manufacturer. The only warranties, expressed or implied, granted in connection with the goods sold with this funeral service are written warranties, if any, extended by the manufacturers thereof. No other warranties, and specifically, no warranties of the merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose are extended by the seller.
