- AHF Officials
 - Aurora Horsemen Foundation, LLC (AHF) officials may photograph AHF events for publication in various AHF mediums, and through various venues, both printed and electronic format. Participants and spectators may be photographed while at the event and no compensation for use shall apply. Participation in or attendance at any AHF event constitutes consent to be photographed, and no compensation for use of image(s) will apply. AHF retains all rights and ownership of photos.

- Amateur Photographers and Spectators
 - AHF does not object to amateur or spectator photography at AHF events as long as those taking the pictures do not interfere with the progression of events being judged, and they are not permitted inside of the judging arenas/areas while classes are in progress. AHF is pleased to share suitable submitted photos captured at AHF events, and/or other special image(s) taken by its members and/or spectators, for the enjoyment of our members and others who may view AHF official publications, both printed and electronic. However, no compensation for use of any submitted images shall apply. AHF may share/ publish submitted photos through such mediums and venues including: AHF newsletters, official website, social media, and other electronic or printed platforms. Submission of photos/images to AHF constitutes conveyance of rights of use to AHF by the submitting party. This includes but is not limited to editing and cropping privileges. If the submitter did not take the photo and is not sure if they have the right to submit the photo under this disclaimer, then the submitter shall not submit the photo to AHF. Please remember that sharing photos is a courtesy being extended by AHF and those generous individuals who have taken the time to capture these moments for our memories and viewing pleasure.

- Professional Photographers:
 - AHF, from time to time, permits professional photographers to attend AHF events and offer their images for purchase. In such cases, AHF will merely provide a link to the photographer's page for interested parties to view and/or purchase images. AHF is not a party to any transaction between the photographer and purchasing parties. AHF does not pay professional photographers to photograph AHF events, or for use of a predetermined number of photos taken at the event to be selected by AHF. A photo credit may be given if any photos are selected by AHF for use and publication.

General Pleasure and Gymkhana Rules

Note: These may be in addition to items already listed on the AHF show bills and registration forms. If any rules are not covered in these, rules will be handled by the current 4-H rule book.

- Exhibitors showing in Lead-Line may NOT show in any other riding division.
- W/T horse/ rider combinations may not show in any other classes for that division.
- Registration or scratch for any class must be completed a minimum of two classes prior. Refunds will not be given for scratched classes.
- Boots with sufficient heels, long pants and conservative shirts must be worn anytime mounted.
- Tack failure, cast/thrown shoes or unseated riders are NOT eligible reasons for re-ride.
- Ill or lame horses may be substituted with a veterinary certificate, confirming inability to show, within 5 days of the AHF event or approval of 3 board members at the event. If illness or lameness continues to additional events, additional documentation may be required.
 - If a horse has been determined by a veterinarian to be out for the rest of the season, a single horse will be used as a substitute for the rest of the year.
Additional substitute horses only by board approval.
- Only show management shall be permitted to talk with the judge and/or announcer while any division is in progress. Any questions for judges or timers may be presented at the end of the event by the exhibitor only in the office.
- There will be a 2 minute gate call for all classes. In the event of a tack change, communicated with the gate person in advance, the gate call will be extended to four minutes. At the end of the 2 minutes, the exhibitor will be disqualified.
- Class will run regardless of weather conditions as long as conditions are the same for all entrants in the class, and if the conditions are deemed acceptable by show management.
- Excessive use of a whip, and spurring the horse in front of the girth and/or excessive spurring will result in disqualification in the class.
- Non-protestable items:

 - Western horses of any age may be ridden in a snaffle or bosal

Performance Class Division Descriptions

Note: These may be in addition to items already listed on the AHF Show Bill & Registration forms

Showmanship (Western or English tack & attire is acceptable)

In this class, the horse is merely a prop to show the ability of the exhibitor to present their horse from the ground. Showmanship is a separate class from Halter (in which the horse is judged). This class shall be judged strictly upon the exhibitor's ability to fit and show their horse in a standard halter class. Listed below are the areas in which exhibitors will be judged:

Appearance of the horse

- Condition and soundness evident
- Hair/coat clean and well brushed
- Mane, tail, forelock, and wither tuft clean and free of tangles. Braids are permitted.
- Hooves trimmed properly. If shod, shoes must fit and clinches should be neat. Polish is permitted.
- Manes may be roached, but the forelock must remain visible.
- Inside of the ears may be clipped.
- Long hair on the jaws, legs, and pasterns should be clipped.
- Tack should be neat, clean, and in good repair. Flashy, silver, or gold tack will not be worth more in the judge's eye than, simple, neat and clean tack.

Showing your horse in the arena

- Enter the ring leading your horse at an alert walk. Walk on your horse's left side holding the lead in your right hand near the bit or halter. The remaining portion of the lead should be held neatly in your left hand. Your horse should lead readily at the walk or the trot.
- After the judge has lined up the class, he/she will call each exhibitor forward individually to move their horse. Be sure the judge can see your horse clearly at all times (do not stand between the judge and your horse).

Posing your horse

- When posing your horse, stand toward the front end but not directly in front of your horse, facing your horse. Always be in a position where you can keep your eye on both the judge and your horse.
- Never kick your horse's legs into position.
- Do not crowd the exhibitor(s) next to you.
- Be natural. Overly showy and/or fussy maneuvering is objectionable.

Poise, Alertness, and Merit

- Stay alert and be aware of the position of the judge at all times. Do not be distracted by persons or things outside of the arena. Parents, friends, and trainers are prohibited from coaching from the sidelines, as doing so is discourteous to the judge and other exhibitors.
- Show your horse at all times, not yourself.
- Recognize and quickly correct the faults of your horse.
- Keep showing until the entire class has been placed and excused from the ring. (The judge is always watching you, even when his/her attention is focused on other horses.)
- Be aware that the judge may ask for different movements such as half, quarter, and full (360) turns.
- The judge may approach your horse, pick up a hoof, and stroke the coat, etc.

English Pleasure (English tack & attire is required)

In this class, judging emphasis is on the horse. Exhibitors will show their horse on the rail, in both directions, at a walk, posting trot, and canter. Reversing direction shall be at the walk or trot only, toward the center of the arena and away from the rail. Horses may be asked to back. Exhibitors will be judged on the following areas:

- Light, but direct, contact with the mouth of the horse shall be maintained at all times.
- For upper level riders, the judge may request some (or all) exhibitors to extend the canter for purposes of determining appropriate placing. Sufficient room for riders must be allowed for the extended canter while other entries remain standing quietly in a designated spot within the arena.
- The English horse should be suitable for purpose moving in a cadenced and balanced manner. Taking into consideration the size and conformation of the horse, quick and short strides are to be penalized.
- Horses should be obedient, alert, and responsive to their rider. Free and collected movement with good manners should be emphasized to give the impression of a pleasurable ride.
- Exhibitors will be penalized for wrong leads, excessive speed, and/or excessively slow gaits.

English Equitation (English tack & attire is required)

In this class, the judging emphasis is on the rider. Riders will be judged on seat, hands, ability to control the horse, and suitability of the horse to the rider. Exhibitors will show on the rail, in both directions, at a walk, posting trot, and canter. Reversing direction shall be at the walk or trot only, toward the center of the arena and away from the rail. Horses may be asked to back. Exhibitors will be judged on the following areas:

- The performance of the horse is NOT considered more important than the method used by the rider to obtain results. Wrong diagonals will be penalized.
- The rider shall present a workmanlike appearance of being one with the horse, and in control at all times. An impression of lightness and suppleness should be conveyed. Light contact with the horse's mouth is required at all times.
- Hands should be over and in front of horse's withers, knuckles 30 degrees inside the vertical, hands slightly apart and making a straight line from horse's mouth to rider's elbow. Reins shall be held in each hand with excess falling to either side.
- Exhibitors should sit a basic position with their eyes up, shoulders back, toes should be at an angle best suited to rider's conformation; heels down, calf of leg in contact with horse. Iron should be on the ball of the foot. The body should be vertical at the walk and slow trot, inclined forward at the posting trot, and slightly forward at the canter.

English Pattern (English tack & attire is required)

In this class, exhibitors will be required to perform a pattern individually. The class is designed to reflect the riding qualities of gaits, response to rider, manners, and disposition of horse and rider. Deduction in scoring will result if an exhibitor breaks the pattern. Breaking the pattern occurs when any one or more of the following takes place:

- Failure to complete the entire pattern.
- Completing maneuvers out of order.
- Knocking over any marker.
- Passing on the wrong side of any marker.
- Pattern difficulty may vary according to the division. For example, the pattern used in the 10 & Under division may not be as complex as the pattern used in the adult divisions.

English Discipline (English tack and attire is required)

The English Discipline class is judged on the rail with participants in the arena at the same time. Riders will be asked to perform various maneuvers to highlight the horses training and the rider will be judged on level with communication with the horse to achieve the required maneuvers.

- The judge may call for any of the following maneuvers:
 - Walk/ Trot classes- Sitting trot, extended trot, diagonal changes, halt, back-up
 - 13 & under- All the same maneuvers listed above and hand gallop, simple lead-change, turn on forehand or hind quarter
 - 14 and over- All maneuvers listed above and counter canter, side-pass either direction, two-point
 - Open- All maneuvers listed above, flying lead change, drop/recover stirrups.

Western Ranch Pleasure (Western tack & attire is required)

The Western Ranch pleasure class measures the ability of the horse to be a pleasure to ride and should reflect the versatility, attitude, and movement of a working horse. The horse should be well-broke, relaxed, quiet, soft and cadenced at all gaits. The movement of the working western rail horse should simulate a horse needing to cover long distances, softly and quietly. The overall manners and responsiveness of the horse and the horse's quality of movement are the primary consideration. Maximum credit should be given to the horse that has a natural flowing stride and consistent, ground covering gaits. The horse should be ridden on a relatively loose rein with light contact and without requiring undue restraint while being responsive to the rider and making timely transitions in a smooth and correct manner. The horse should be soft in the bridle, yield to contact and shall not be shown on a full drape rein. This class should show the horse's ability to work in a forward, working pace while under control of the rider. The horse shall be balanced and appear willing and a pleasure to ride in a group situation. This class encourages a natural headset and extended gaits are often called.

- Reins shall be held as follows:
 - Split reins shall be held in one hand with palm down. The index finger only is permitted to separate the reins.
 - Romal reins- The romal should go across the palm and around the thumb. The hand should be closed into a fists over both reins with no fingers in between. The rein hand should always be in front of the romal's knot.
 - Two hands are permitted on any horse of any age using a snaffle bit or bosal.
- Exhibitors will be penalized for wrong leads, excessive speed, lack of speed, breaking gait, failure to take the call for the gait, exhibitors touching horse or saddle with free hand, head carried too low or too high, nosing out or flexing behind the vertical, opening mouth excessively, stumbling or falling, use of spurs or romal forward of the cinch, and/or losing either or both stirrups.
- Silver and/ or blingy tack is permitted

Western Horsemanship(Western tack & attire is required)

In this class, the judging emphasis is on the rider. Riders will be judged on seat, hands, ability to control the horse, and suitability of the horse to the rider. Exhibitors will show their horse on the rail, in both directions, at a walk, jog, and lope. Reversing direction shall be at the walk or jog only, toward the center of the arena and away from the rail. Horses may be asked to back. Exhibitors will be judged on the following areas:

- The performance of the horse is NOT considered more important than the method used by the rider to obtain results.
- The rider should sit in the center of the saddle and the horse's back with the legs hanging to form a straight line from the ear, through the center of the shoulder and hip, touching the back of the heel or through the ankle. The heels should be lower than the toes, with a slight bend in the knee and the lower leg should be directly under the knee. The rider's back should be flat, relaxed and supple. An overly stiff and/or overly arched lower back will be penalized. Regardless of the type of stirrup, the feet may either be placed home in the stirrup, with the boot heel touching the stirrup, or may be placed with the ball of the foot in the center of the stirrup. The rider's toes should be pointing straight ahead or slightly turned out with the ankles straight or slightly broken in. Riding with toes only in the stirrup and riding without contact with the bottom of the boot securely on the pad of stirrup will be penalized.

- Both hands and arms should be held in a relaxed, easy manner, with the upper arm in a straight line with the body. The arm holding the reins should be bent at the elbow forming a line from the elbow to the horse's mouth. The free hand and arm may be carried bent at the elbow in a similar position as the hand holding the reins or straight down at the rider's side. Excessive pumping of the free arm as well as excessive stiffness will be penalized. The rider's wrist is to be kept straight and relaxed, with the hand held at about 30 to 45 degrees inside the vertical. The rein hand should be carried immediately above or slightly in front of the saddle horn. The reins should be adjusted so that the rider has light contact with the horse's mouth, and at no time shall reins require more than a slight hand movement to control the horse. Excessively tight or loose reins will be penalized. The reins shall not change hands. When using a romal, the rider's off hand shall be around the romal with at least 16" of reins between the hands. Wrists are to be kept straight and relaxed, with fingers closed around the reins and thumbs on top. Two hands are permitted on any horse when using a snaffle bit or bosal.
- Riders should maintain a vertical position in all gaits, sitting to the jog (not posting), and the lope. All movements of the horse should be governed by imperceptible aids. Exaggerated shifting of the rider's weight is not desirable. Moving of the lower legs of riders who are short or small shall not be penalized.
- All attire must be neat and clean.
- Judging will begin at the first indication from the judge and will stop at the signal from the ring steward or judge.

Western Horsemanship Pattern (Western tack & attire is required)

In this class, exhibitors will be required to perform a pattern individually. The class is designed to reflect the riding qualities of gaits, response to rider, manners, and disposition of horse and rider. Deduction in scoring will result if an exhibitor breaks the pattern. Breaking the pattern occurs when any one or more of the following takes place:

- Failure to complete the entire pattern.
- Completing maneuvers out of order.
- Knocking over any marker.
- Passing on the wrong side of any marker.

Pattern difficulty may vary according to the division. For example, the pattern used in the 10 & Under division may not be as complex as the pattern used in the 19-35 division.

Ranch Riding

The ranch riding horse should simulate a horse riding outside the confines of the arena and reflect the versatility, attitude and movement of the working horse. This class is judged on the horse's ability to work at a forward, working speed while performing the required maneuvers. The ranch riding horse should display good manners and responsiveness as well as make timely transitions in a smooth and correct manner.

- Silver tack is permitted
- All attire must be clean and neat
- Posting at the extended jog is permitted

Trail (Both English & Western tack and attire are allowed, appropriate tack is required)

In this class, judging is on the performance of the horse and rider as they complete the transitions and obstacles presented. The emphasis will be on the horse's manners, responsiveness to the rider, and attitude throughout the course. Horses will be penalized for any unnecessary delay while approaching or completing an obstacle. Third party ground assistance shall not be permitted.

- Credit will be given to horses negotiating obstacles with style and some degree of speed, providing that a careful attitude is not sacrificed. Horses showing ability to negotiate obstacles as if on their own and willingness to respond to rider cues on more difficult obstacles shall be given credit as well.
- Horses shall be penalized for any unnecessary delay while approaching or negotiating the obstacles. Riders with exaggerated standing in stirrups and leaning forward over the horse's neck shall also be penalized. Riders who dismount to assist their horse through an obstacle shall be disqualified.
- Up to six obstacles will be utilized. Failure to follow the course shall be cause for score deduction. Failure to complete an obstacle shall count against the horse and rider. The course shall be reset, if necessary, after each rider.
- Score sheets shall be furnished to the judge (AHF will follow AQHA scoring system, less disqualification).
- The following obstacles can be used:
 - a. Opening, passing through, and closing a gate. Changing hands on the gate or turning loose of the gate is a penalty.
 - b. Ride over logs or poles. These can be in a straight line, curved, or zigzagged. The space between logs/poles shall be measured from the starting point from which the horse begins the obstacle as follows: Walkovers at 15" to 24" apart, Trot/Jog-overs shall be 3'6" apart, and Canter/Lope-overs shall be 6' to 7' apart.
 - c. Backing through an "L" shaped obstacle.
 - d. Backing through and around three markers set in either a triangle or line.
 - e. Cross over a bridge. The bridge will be built to handle the combined weight of horse and rider from any variety of materials.
 - f. Side-pass or turns on the fore or hind quarters.
 - g. New obstacles may be introduced at any event by AHF
- Each competitor is allowed up to four minutes to complete the entire course. Three attempts are permitted for each obstacle before the obstacle is considered failed and the rider must continue on to the next obstacle.

Gymkhana Specific Rules:

- Disqualification shall occur for failure to cross the start line within 30 seconds of entering the arena.
- All exhibitors must pass through the entry and exit gates at a walk with or without assistance.
- Keyhole and Pole Bending will be run at the same time and may be completed in either order, however all exhibitors must cross the start line for the second class within 60 seconds of crossing the finish line of the first class.

- Distances in patterns may be adjusted to fit the arena size or class at the event management's discretion
- Challenges to the pattern must be expressed prior to your run
- Re-rides shall be at the discretion of event management
- Over-under whips and quirts are acceptable as long as not used in excess, as determined by 1 or more board members.
- If competing in open and age-group, rolling times is encouraged but not required. Must be determined at time of registration.
- W/T exhibitors may go no faster than a trot. A five second penalty will be assessed for breaking into a lope.
