

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

These terms and conditions form the agreement between the artist and Fairholme College that governs the entry of the Fairholme Open Art Prize – FACETS Art Exhibition.

By submitting a completed entry form the artist agrees to these terms, and conditions, and assures that all information provided by the artist in the entry form and during the prize is true and correct. Once the Artist has completed and submitted the entry form and such form has been received by Fairholme College, it will be considered to be a Legal Document. It is the responsibility of the artist to ensure the entry adheres to all local, State, Federal, and Indigenous laws.

Fairholme College may amend these terms and conditions and the entry form at any time, subject to giving notice to the artist. Notice of the amendment may be given in writing or verbally notified. The artist's continued involvement with the Fairholme Open Art Prize will be taken as their acceptance of any changes to these terms and conditions.

Fairholme College has absolute discretion in deciding whether an artist or an artwork has satisfied the terms and conditions for entry into the Fairholme Open Art Prize – FACETS Art Exhibition.

Fairholme College reserves the right to revoke the award of any prize money (and any associated privileges) to a finalist and may grant it to another finalist if the finalist declares false information in the entry form or during the prize or fails to comply with their obligations under these terms and conditions.

Fairholme College or the Judges may, at their discretion, not award any Prize Money. The decisions of Fairholme College and the Judges are final, and no challenges will be permitted.
