Years In Review

2016-2018

Mission

Fisk University produces graduates from diverse backgrounds with the integrity and intellect required for substantive contributions to society. Our curriculum is grounded in the liberal arts. Our faculty and administrators emphasize the discovery and advancement of knowledge through research in the natural and social sciences, business and the humanities. We are committed to the success of scholars and leaders with a global perspective.

Vision

To be among the best small liberal arts institutions in America.

Motto

Her sons and daughters ever on the altar.

Religious Life Statement

The Fisk Memorial Chapel is an ecumenical, non-denominational, interdenominational and interfaith arena for learning, worship and public service which overtly seeks to bring hope and healing to the lives of individuals and families throughout our global community.

Vision for the Church within the Chapel

To be a beacon light for Jesus Christ in order that people may experience the love of God and serve a hopeful humanity.

A Prayer by W.E.B. Dubois, Class of 1888

"God bless all schools and forward the great work of education for which we stand. Arouse within us and within our land a deep realization of the seriousness of our problem of training children. On them rests the future work and thought and sentiment and goodness of the world. If here and elsewhere we train the lazy and shallow, the self-indulgent and the frivolous-- if we destroy reason and religion and do not rebuild, help us, O God, to realize how heavy is our responsibility and how great the cost. The school of today is the world of tomorrow and today and tomorrow are Thine, O God. Amen." Prayers for Dark People, W. E. B. Dubois, Edited by Herbert Aptheker (Amherst: The University of Massachusetts Press, 1980), 53.

Dedication of the Fisk Memorial Chapel, July, 1893

"At last Fisk may pride herself upon possessing an audience room suitable for the accommodations of her guests...In the possession of this beautiful memorial chapel for our Sunday worship and for concerts and anniversary occasions, we are greatly rejoicing and today we say with deeper meaning than ever before, Hitherto hath the Lord helped us."

Dear Friends,

Above the entrance of the Fisk Memorial Chapel, one may read the scripture stated by the prophet Jeremiah thousands of years ago: "Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee (Jeremiah 60:1)." To immerse yourself in the bountiful life of the Fisk Family, in general, and to become a witness of God's miraculous activity in the Chapel, in particular, is to feel God's light shining upon you. Throughout the past two years, our University community has borne witness to the purposeful and providential presence of God in a host of ministries, cultural endeavors, academic enterprises and administrative initiatives which seek to further the mission of our beloved institution. We are indeed fortunate have to the opportunity to improve both the spiritual and existential condition of our human lot through the abundant resources that God has so graciously bestowed upon our University community. As the Dean of the Fisk Memorial Chapel, I would like to express my gratitude to you for taking the time to peruse our Years-In-Review for 2016-2018. Thank you for partnering with us as we seek to inspire and improve the lives of those in our local, national and global community.

Welcoming our President at the

Kevin D. Rome Sr., Ph.D.

The Sixteenth President of Fisk University

The Fisk Family believes in the power of prayer. For over one hundred years, the motto of the University declares that "Her sons and daughter are ever on the altar." On July 6, 2017, the Religious Leaders for Fisk welcomed Dr. Kevin D. Rome Sr., the 16th President of Fisk University, as well as his family to the campus community by hosting an ecumenical Prayer Breakfast. We thank God for President Rome, Mrs. Stephanie Rome and the twins, Kevin and Kendel Rome. May God continue to bless them and keep them in the many months and years to come.

Ecumenical Prayer Breakfast

The entire Fisk University community was blessed to hear prayers concerning a variety of different subjects. Dean Curry delivered the "The Invocation and Prayer for President Rome and Family." The Reverend Pamela G. Kellar delivered the "Prayer for the Fisk Family: Faculty, Staff and Students." The Reverend Stacy Rector delivered the "Prayer for Nashville, America and the Global Community." Minister Xuam Lawson delivered the "Prayer on Behalf of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Incorporated." The Benediction was delivered by the Reverend Barton E. Harris. We are indeed grateful for God's intervention in the life of our University community.

The killing of unarmed African-American men throughout the nation by law enforcement has sparked outrage among many sectors of our democracy. In many instances, community demands for justice and accountability have been ignored by those who have the power and authority to effectuate positive change in our nation. As the alma mater of W. E. B. Dubois, Fisk University created a think tank in order to address this national crisis. On February 1, 2018, prominent activists, scholars and administrators in the area of higher education participated in a panel discussion in the Fisk Memorial Chapel. The topics of the discussion concerned a variety of issues which have positively and negatively impacted black lives as they exist in America and throughout the world. Fisk University intends to continue this important discussion regarding solutions to this national crisis throughout the next academic year.

Dinner and a Movie: Sharing a Thanksgiving meal with Students

There are many students in our campus community who do not go home during the Thanksgiving break. Expenses related to travel for our international students may exceed their budgets, and some students stay on campus during the Thanksgiving break in order to prepare for exams. In order to remind these students that they are members of a giving and caring campus community, the Fisk Memorial Chapel provides students with dinner and a movie, free of charge, over the course of the break. In the picture above, Pastor Winterbourne Harrison-Jones '10, volunteered to serve food to our students. Praise be to God.

The Fisk Jubilee Singers

The Fisk Jubilee Singers performed in the Fisk Memorial Chapel on Jubilee Day, October 6, 2017. In recent years, the Fisk Jubilee Singers have performed in Italy, Spain, Ghana and Germany. As they travel, they continue to sing the Negro spirituals, thus preserving this important genre of music and the rich legacy. The Fisk Jubilee Singers perform under the direction of Dr. Paul T. Kwami, Associate Professor Music and the Mike Curb Jubilee Singers Endowed Chair.

The two-time GRAMMY Nominated Fisk Jubilee Singers have won a Dove Award and have been inducted into the Gospel Music Hall of Fame as well as the Music City Walk of Fame. In 2008, the Fisk Jubilee Singers were awarded the National Medal of Arts by former President George W. Bush at the White House. Other awards of the ensemble include the Governor's Award, the Recording Academy Honors, and the Heritage Award of the Nashville Music Awards. The Fisk Jubilee Singers were among the 2015 GRAMMY Hall of Fame inductees and are the 2017 recipients of the SYNERGY AWARD presented by the Nashville Ballet.

New Books For You!

Dear Lord, Where are You? A Handbook for Students seeking Christ in College is primarily intended for college and university students who are seeking to successfully overcome the challenges presented in a collegiate environment by unitizing the resources of the Christian faith. The Reverend Dr. Jason Richard Curry draws from his experiences as a Youth Minister, former pastor and current role as the Dean of the Chapel at Fisk University in order to explain how and why the teachings of Jesus are relevant and essential for any student who desires to be successful in college. Dean Curry relies on his seventeen years of experience working with students in a University setting as a chaplain, professor and administrator in order to provide clarification and direction on subjects such as dating, marriage, money management, challenging course work, finding the appropriate student religious group, creating a legacy of Christian service, making the most of your freshman year and addressing problems which stem from the student's home.

PRIESTLY AND PROPHETIC REFLECTIONS

A Weekly Devotional from the Fisk Memorial Chapel

Priestly and Prophetic Reflections: A Weekly Devotional from the Fisk Memorial Chapel is a new book written by the Reverend Dr. Jason Richard Curry, Dean of the Fisk Memorial Chapel and Director of Religious Life at Fisk University. It is a compilation of inspirational passages that are written for both new and seasoned Christians. The reflections that appear in this book were originally published on a weekly basis in the Tennessee Tribune newspaper in Nashville, Tennessee. Due to popular demand, Dean Curry compiled these weekly passages, which were written over a six year period, and published them. The written passages are intended to be a guide for those seeking clarification about Christian values such as love, forgiveness and reconciliation. Priestly and Prophetic Reflections also provides both a Christian perspective and response to societal issues such as hunger, poverty and racism.

On June 10, 2018, Dean Curry was fortunate to be the morning preacher for Scholarship Sunday at the Mississippi Boulevard Christian Church in Memphis, Tennessee. The Reverend Dr. Jason Lawrence Turner '03, is a Fiskite and the outstanding Pastor of this esteemed congregation. Dr. Turner provided each of the graduating seniors with a copy of Dear Lord, Where are You? If you are visiting or reside in Memphis, TN, please visit this loving, active and supportive congregation.
