Jeff Phelps

Jeff Phelps, originally from Virginia Beach, Virginia, has performed locally with the Virginia Symphony, Virginia Arts Festival, Harbor Quartet, Virginia Musical Theatre, Norfolk Chamber Consort, Stephen Coxe and Friends, and Galatea Chamber Music.

Jeff grew up at King's Grant Presbyterian Church, where he participated in children's choirs, handbells, youth group, and the puppet ministry. He earned an arts high school diploma from the Governor's School for the Arts and went on to complete both Bachelor's and Master's degrees in cello performance and orchestral conducting at the Cleveland Institute of Music. He recently transitioned into professional arts management, working with the National Symphony Orchestra of Ireland while completing postgraduate studies in cultural policy and arts management in Dublin. He currently serves as Director of Operations for the York Symphony Orchestra and continues to perform as a cellist and conductor throughout Virginia and Pennsylvania.

In his free time, Jeff enjoys high-altitude hiking, grapefruit, and traveling to experience live performances in far-off places.

Our next Noonday concert will be Monday, September 28
