

Monumental

United Methodist Church

Chris Titko

piano

"My Favorite Hymns"

Monday, February 19, 2024

Noon

PROGRAM

Battle Hymn of the Republic

Mark Hayes

It Is Well

Howard Helvey

Amazing Grace

Albin Whitworth

As the Deer/Beautiful Savior

Mark Hayes

Just A Closer Walk with Thee

Larry Shackley

Jesus Love Me

John Kraus

Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing

Albin Whitworth

Lunch is available, for $5, following the recital.

Christopher Titko

"God transforming lives through the arts" Christopher Titko's musical journey began as a PK in Ohio where his grandfather was a United Methodist minister as well as his father. Mr. Titko is a graduate of Westminster Choir College and holds a master's degree from Indiana University. He pursued further studies in conducting at the University of Oklahoma. In his over 40 years of ministry, Christopher has led performances with orchestra of major choral works as well as musical theater. Mr. Titko has also performed as a vocal soloist with Sir David Willcocks, accompanied choirs for Joseph Flummerfelt, Dr John Yarrington and Dr Richard Zelinski. He has also played recitals in New York, Ohio, New Jersey, Indiana, Arkansas, Virginia and Florida. He was recently appointed Conductor/Artistic Director of the James River Ringers in Richmond, Virginia. Christopher has three children and enjoys going to the movies, traveling, and snorkeling.

MONUMENTAL UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Pastor

Rev. Dr. Celeste Heath

Lindauer Chair for Music and Fine Arts

Christopher Titko

Services are regularly held at 11:00am on Sundays.

Monumental

United Methodist Church

Upcoming Concerts

Monday, March 18th

12 Noon

Cutie and the Hot Wings

Carol Downing and Friends

Celtic music

Sunday, April 14th

4 pm

REQUIEM by John Rutter

Monday, April 29th

12 Noon

3 students from the Governor's School for the Arts students