A Note from the Director:

Welcome to A Very Cora Christmas! I'd like to start by thanking all of those that made this night possible:

Linda Edmonds for coordinating the meal

Dorothy Williams & Pam Snider for reservations and office support

Bonnie White for program design and publicity

Ray Comstock for his technical expertise with lighting, sound, and video

Chris Titko for his musical talents and support

The Cast for their hard work in creating Cora's home

We are glad to welcome Penny Barham to the stage. This is her first stage role and she has been a wonderful member of the cast.

And now a little about our play. Everybody knows Cora - she might be a neighbor or a friend or the relative that everybody loves, but nobody quite understands. She is a free spirit, unbound by any of the norms that society wishes to place on her. She sees only goodness in those that surround her, and they see only goodness in her even when she's often times befuddling. You're never quite sure if she's on fast forward, pause, or reverse. Every day is special; every moment an adventure! Everyone needs a "Cora" in their life, if only for a brief moment.
