THE VELAA STORY

Born from a love for the Maldives, Velaa Private Island is the passion project of a couple, Radka and Jiří Šmejč, to create the world's most luxurious private island resort and personal home. Located in Noonu Atoll, a 45-minute seaplane flight from Malé, Velaa is a destination in a category of its own, home to an array of amenities unseen across the Indian Ocean.

Velaa means "turtle" in Dhivehi, the local Maldivian language. Our name is inspired by the generations of sea turtles that inhabit the island and its beautiful coral reef. Conceptualised by renowned Czech architect, Petr Kolář, the design weaves contemporary luxury with intimate Maldivian nuances. Throughout the resort, a subtle design reference to the turtle is always present. From a bird's eye aerial view, the exclusive over-water villas form the head of a turtle, whilst the island and strategically placed jetties resemble its body and flippers.

Velaa shares its name and its home with generations of sea turtles which have inhabited the island for countless years. The colours and patterns of a turtle shell make up subtle nuances in the design, while from a broader aerial view, Velaa's exclusive over-water villas resemble the head of a turtle with the island and jetties resembling the body and flippers.

The classic Velaa Turtle Collection, introduced by the same designer, was born a couple of years earlier in honour of the turtle to celebrate the longevity, form and elegance of this aquatic species. The colours of the precious stones, diamonds and fine gems selected for this collection recall those of Velaa – the azure lagoon, the vibrant tropical landscape, the purest white sand and the dazzling light of the sun on the water. The Velaa Turtle Collection is a special souvenir and a precious gift that holds the promise of return.

Velaa also features jewellery by TAMARA COMOLLI®, a casual yet luxurious range symbolising the spirit of a romantic island escape. A true dedication to the beauty of understatement, this collection with its versatile combinations allows every woman to interpret her own personal style.

Launched in celebration of Velaa Private Island's ten-year Anniversary, the Velaa Art Gallery introduces a pioneering collection, namely The Glass Collection, a unique exhibition that showcases artworks meticulously fashioned from vibrant glass.

Rudolf Burda, Lukáš Novák, and Rony Plesl, chosen for their profound connection to this captivating yet intricate medium, are distinguished as virtuosos in their craft on a global scale. Whilst each artist's work diverges in technique, themes, and artistic approach, they are committed in unison to pushing boundaries and exploring fresh forms of artistic expression. Tasked with designing exclusive pieces tailored for Velaa's 10th-anniversary exhibition, this collection delves into the island's themes through their distinctive perspectives, offering an unparalleled chance to immerse oneself in the distinct ambiance of Maldivian abundance.
