impossible either to know God or love God, and that is why Jesus promises us the Spirit will come. If we wish to grow into our love for God we must become attentive to the Spirit who dwells within us. We get to know the Spirit within us by being faithful to prayer, finding the presence of God within, realizing his goodness and cultivating grateful hearts. -(Living Liturgy, P.138)

Jesus tells us that we keep God's commandments because our love for God has established a deep and intimate relationship between us and God that spills out in acts we know will be pleasing to the Beloved. Rather than burdensome laws, then, commandments are concrete expressions of our love for God and each other. On our own it is

Religious Education & Faith Formation

(During the month of May the four bulletin articles will focus on our Blessed Mother. -noël)

A Life of "Fiat": The Journey of Mary of Nazareth

The life of the Blessed Virgin Mary is the ultimate masterclass in faithful cooperation with God's grace. To understand Mary, we must look at her life as a continuous pilgrimage of faith, beginning with her

"Immaculate Conception"—the unique grace by which she was preserved from the stain of original sin from the moment of her conception. This set the stage for her defining moment at the Annunciation. When the Angel Gabriel appeared to her, Mary did not respond with blind submissiveness, but with a thoughtful, courageous "yes." She offered her "fiat," saying, "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word" (Luke 1:38). By accepting her role as the Theotokos (Mother of God), she became the first and most perfect disciple of the New Covenant.

Mary's life was characterized by what theologians often call "quiet service." In the hidden years at Nazareth, she lived a life that mirrored our own: filled with the mundane tasks of cooking, cleaning, and caring for her family. Yet, she performed every humble act in perfect union with God's will. This hidden life teaches us that holiness is found in the ordinary. As Jesus began his public ministry, Mary remained a constant, prayerful presence. She was there at the beginning, prompting his first miracle, and she was there at the end, standing heroically at the foot of the cross.

In that moment of supreme sacrifice, Christ gave her to us all as a spiritual mother. Speaking from the cross to the beloved disciple, and through him to all of us, Jesus said, "Behold, your mother" (John 19:27). Her earthly journey concluded with her Assumption, where she was taken body and soul into heavenly glory. This dogma* serves as a "sign of sure hope" for the Church, reminding us of the resurrection that awaits all who follow her Son. Mary's life shows us that a life lived for God is never small or insignificant; it is a path that leads directly to the heart of God.

Questions to Ponder:

What is one area of my life where God is asking for my "fiat" (yes) right now, even if I don't fully understand the plan?

How can I transform my "hidden" daily chores into acts of prayer and service this week?

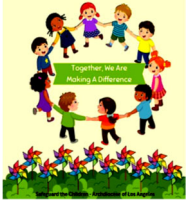

*Catholic dogma is a truth contained in divine revelation (Scripture or Tradition) which the Church's Magisterium has formally defined as binding and requiring unconditional assent of faith.

Easter Season Prayer for the Home

God of life, through the Resurrection of your Son, you have showered the world with a joy that never ends. We thank you for the gift of this Easter season. Bless our home and our family with the light of Christ. May the "Alleluia" we sing at Mass echo in our hearts and in the way we treat one another. Fill us with the peace that only the Risen Lord can give and lead us safely to the great feast of Pentecost. We ask this through Christ our Lord. AMEN! Alleluia!

Modeling Appropriate Behaviors

Small things done well and with love can make a huge difference in the life of a child. A safe adult can model appropriate behavior in his or her daily life by following child safety rules, acting appropriately in front of children, volunteering to help with outreach and safety efforts in parishes and schools, and showing children respect and care. For more tips on how to live out the promise to keep children safe, read the VIRTUS® article "Modeling Healthy Behaviors" at: lacatholics.org/did-you-know.
