REFLECTION:

Jesus knew that his mission was not to be continued by mere humans; on our own authority and power we could not give true witness and our doubts and misunderstandings could never be overcome. Jesus knew that his mission could be entrusted to his disciples because they “will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon” them. It is the Spirit who resolves doubt, clears up misunderstanding about the mission, gives wisdom, revelation, and knowledge. Thus, being disciples of Jesus is not something we are alone. We are disciples by letting the Spirit work through us as we live our everyday life. (Living Liturgy, p. 142)

Mass Intentions for the Week

Our Community News

This Weekend (May 16-17) we take up the collection for the Cardinal McIntyre Fund for Charity. The theme this year is "Harmony in Hope". This fund provides emergency help to persons in Santa Barbara, Ventura and Los Angeles counties who have nowhere else to go. It is for families and individuals, focusing on essential needs such as food, lodging, rent and utility bills. Your contribution to the Cardinal McIntyre Fund for Charity make you a sharer in our parishes' works of mercy, and in their rewards of grace. Please use the specially marked envelopes in the pews. Thank you!

Pray for those in need of healing:

Religious Education & Faith Formation

(During the month of May the four bulletin articles will focus on our Blessed Mother. -noël)

Beacons of Hope: Lessons from Marian Apparitions

Throughout history, Mary has appeared at pivotal moments to offer guidance and maternal reassurance. While these "private revelations" do not add to the Deposit of Faith, the Church recognizes approved apparitions like Guadalupe, Lourdes, and Fatima as helps to live the Gospel more fully. These encounters remind us of the "great sign" described in Scripture: "a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet" (Revelation 12:1).

Whether appearing to St. Juan Diego in Mexico or the shepherd children in Fatima, Mary's message is consistent. She points us toward her Son, inviting every generation to heed the words she spoke at the wedding feast: "Do whatever he tells you" (John 2:5). Her apparitions are not about herself, but about calling the world back to prayer, penance, and the peace of Christ.

Questions to Ponder:

If Mary were to visit my home today, what Gospel message would she remind me of?

How can I better heed the call to pray for peace within my own family?

*Catholic dogma is a truth contained in divine revelation (Scripture or Tradition) which the Church's Magisterium has formally defined as binding and requiring unconditional assent of faith.

Easter Season Prayer for the Home

God of life, through the Resurrection of your Son, you have showered the world with a joy that never ends. We thank you for the gift of this Easter season. Bless our home and our family with the light of Christ. May the "Alleluia" we sing at Mass echo in our hearts and in the way we treat one another. Fill us with the peace that only the Risen Lord can give and lead us safely to the great feast of Pentecost. We ask this through Christ our Lord. AMEN! Alleluia!

KEEPING KIDS SAFE

Safeguard The Children

Did you know?

Know the signs of potential abuse for vulnerable adults

Keeping children from harm is essential, but it is just as important to prioritize the protection of vulnerable adults. A vulnerable adult is someone who, due to a physical, mental, emotional, or behavior condition, may not be able to protect themselves from harm or exploitation. Warning signs of abuse can include injuries, signs of apparent malnutrition or dehydration, soiled clothing or bedding, anxiety, and unclean living conditions. By understanding the reality of vulnerable adult abuse, considering our own behavior, learning warning signs and communicating concerns – we can strive to protect other who may not be in a position to protect themselves. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article “Continuing Our Efforts to Protect Vulnerable Adults” at: lacatholics.org/did-you-know.
