REFLECTION:

The gospel speaks of the fear that the disciples would have in facing opposition. When we are compassionate—sent out to serve the poor—we also will face opposition and persecution. This doesn't mean censorship or physical hardship only. It does mean that our lives must embody the care and compassion of God. The mission of discipleship ought not be undertaken lightly, because there will also be persecution. Neither, however, ought the mission be undertaken with trepidation because God does not abandon us. (Living Liturgy, p. 176)

*Sing to the Lord, praise the Lord, for
He has rescued the life of the poor.*

—Jeremiah 20:13

COMMUNION SERVICE from Monday,

Religious Education & Faith Formation

(June is the month of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. We will share a month long series on the history and spirituality of this devotion. -noël)

The Nine First Fridays and Reparation

One of the most specific practices requested by Jesus is the First Friday Devotion. Christ promised St. Margaret Mary that those who receive Holy Communion on the first Friday of nine consecutive months, in a spirit of reparation, would receive the grace of "final perseverance." This practice is not a "magic formula" but a spiritual discipline intended to foster a deep, habitual intimacy with Christ. It centers on reparation, which means offering our own acts of love and reception of the Eucharist to "console" Christ's Heart for the indifference and coldness it receives from the world.

This devotion trains us to order our lives around God's time. Committing to a recurring monthly practice helps us move beyond "lukewarm" faith into a more fervent, dedicated relationship with Jesus. It is an invitation to rest upon His Heart, much like St. John the Apostle did at the Last Supper.

As part of the 250th anniversary initiatives, parishioners are encouraged to participate in 250 Hours of Adoration and 250 Works of Mercy. This blends the interior life of prayer with the exterior life of service. By joining a First Friday tradition, you aren't just engaging in a private piety; you are participating in a nationwide movement to re-center American life on the mercy of God.

Reflection: Is my relationship with Jesus a "priority" that I schedule my life around, or a "spare time" activity that gets pushed aside when I am busy?

How can I make "reparation" today—what small act of kindness can I do to make up for the indifference God experiences in the world?

Integrating prayer into your existing summer routine allows you to stay close to God without needing hours of free time. Try these!

Micro-Prayers for High-Speed Days

- Morning Offering: Consecrate your day immediately upon waking up. Give God your upcoming tasks before checking your phone.
- The "One-Decade" Rosary: You do not need 20 minutes for a full Rosary. Pray just one decade (10 Hail Marys) during your morning commute or while waiting in line.
- Arrow Prayers: Shoot quick, one-sentence prayers to heaven throughout the day. Examples include "Jesus, I trust in You" or "Lord, give me patience right now".
- Redemptive Chores: Offer up the physical discomfort of summer heat or exhausting chores. Dedicate your sweat while mowing the lawn or cleaning the house for a specific prayer intention.

On-the-Go Audio Faith

- Audio Rosaries and Chaplets: Play a guided Rosary or Divine Mercy Chaplet over your car speakers. This utilizes time spent driving to summer camps, errands, or road trips.
- Mass Readings via Podcast: Listen to the daily Mass scriptures while getting ready in the morning. Many Catholic apps offer 5-minute audio reflections on the day's Gospel.
- Hallow or Amen Apps: Utilize Catholic prayer apps to find structured 3-minute, 5-minute, or 10-minute meditations designed for tight schedules.

Outdoor & Nature Connections

- Rosary Walks: Swap a sedentary prayer space for the outdoors. Walk around your neighborhood or a local park while moving through your prayers.
- Visio Divina in Nature: Sit outside for five minutes and practice "divine seeing". Look closely at a flower, the sky, or a tree, and thank the Creator for His artistry.
- St. Pier Giorgio Frassati Hikes: If you go hiking or spend time on the beach, dedicate the first or last 10 minutes to silent gratitude. Reflect on how the massive scale of nature reveals God's power.

Pocket-Sized Liturgical Living

- Mass via MassTimes.org: When traveling for vacation, use the Mass Times Locator to instantly find nearby parishes. Never skip Sunday Mass due to travel logistics.
- Adoration Pit-Stops: You do not have to commit to a full Holy Hour. Slip into an adoration chapel for just 5 to 10 minutes when passing by a church during your daily route.
- Feast Day Cookouts: Merge your summer meal planning with the Church calendar. Fire up the grill to celebrate major summer feasts, such as the Feast of St. Lawrence (August 10) or the Solemnity of the Assumption (August 15).

KEEPING KIDS SAFE

Safeguard The Children

Did you know?

Be your children's safety net

Parents and guardians have a responsibility to be the first line of defense for their children and that starts with boundaries. Set rules around internet use in your home and block access to sites where they can be contacted by others, except for trusted friends and family, wherever possible. If children are older, talk to them about the dangers of taking and sharing inappropriate pictures and videos. For more tips, visit: parents.thorn.org.
