REFLECTION:

Both weariness and persistence are things we can all relate and connect to with little difficulty. Sometimes when we are most weary it's simply persistence in getting the task finished, ending the workday, or keeping a goal in mind that gets us through. Persistence. Tenacity. Stubbornness. Stick-to-itiveness. In this gospel it is the widow's persistence that eventually wins her justice. Because God is just and concerned for the rights of the downtrodden, persistent prayer always leads to justice. But for many, setting aside any definite time for prayer during the day may seem all but impossible. Persistence in praying "always" might need to take the form in our lives of developing the habit of being aware of God's abiding presence and blessings even in our busyness. The place and manner of prayer aren't nearly so important as the fact that we pray "always and without ceasing." (Living Liturgy, p. 228)

SPECIAL COLLECTION THIS WEEKEND— WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

This year's theme, "Missionaries of Hope Among the Peoples," is a call to embody the love of God, poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit. Your offering today provides hope where despair too often dominates—through the building of churches, formation of seminarians and religious sisters, healthcare clinics, and Catholic schools. Thank you for responding with faith, love, and generosity. As Pope Francis told us "Each of us is a mission on this earth". Together we share in that mission by ensuring that no one is excluded from the invitation to encounter Christ. Special envelopes are available in the pews.

Pray for those in need of healing:

Safeguard The Children

Did you know?

Our Mission to Protect Vulnerable Adults

Nearly 1 in 4 U.S. adults report living with some kind of disability, ranging from physical limitations to diminished mental capabilities.

Misunderstandings and misconceptions about a person's individual disabilities can put that person at risk for abuse. By adopting practices that aim to understand a person's unique circumstances, abilities, and challenges, we can work to protect those who are vulnerable in our communities. Some examples which can help foster safety and community include: asking questions instead of making assumptions, focusing on a person's abilities and using positive language. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "Our Mission to Protect Vulnerable Adults" at: lacatholics.org/did-you-know.

Catholic Bible Institute presents: BIBLE TALK SERIES

October 22, 2025-Wednesday, 7pm-8:30pm PST

Jeremiah—A Prophetic Voice for Our Times

Jeremiah, called the "weeping prophet," speaks with a voice that still resounds powerfully for the Church and the world today. His message offers both hope and courage in the midst of confusing times. Through his own suffering, persecution, and inner struggles, Jeremiah shows us what it means to remain faithful. He teaches us that, even when the cost is great, we can trust in the Word and the unfailing promise of God.

Our Bible Talks are completely free! All presentations will be live on ZOOM.
