

Early Intervention Family Knowledge Check Quiz

Purpose:

This quiz is designed to help families better understand Early Intervention services and identify areas where they may want more information or support. There are no passing or failing scores — this is simply a helpful learning tool for families.

Early Intervention Quiz

1. What is the main purpose of Early Intervention services?

- A. To prepare children for kindergarten testing
- B. To provide support for infants and toddlers with developmental delays or disabilities
- C. To provide daycare services
- D. To diagnose all medical conditions

Correct Answer: B

2. Early Intervention services are typically available for children from birth until what age?

- A. 1 year old
- B. 2 years old
- C. 3 years old
- D. 5 years old

Correct Answer: C

3. Which of the following may qualify a child for Early Intervention?

- A. Delays in speech or communication
- B. Difficulty with movement or motor skills
- C. Social or emotional concerns
- D. All of the above

Correct Answer: D

4. Families are important members of the Early Intervention team.

- A. True
- B. False

Correct Answer: A

5. What does IFSP stand for?

- A. Individual Family Service Plan
- B. Infant Family Support Program
- C. Individual Functional Service Process
- D. Inclusive Family Support Plan

Correct Answer: A

6. An IFSP is designed to:

- A. Focus only on the child's medical needs
- B. Support both the child's development and the family's priorities and concerns
- C. Replace all therapy recommendations
- D. Be used only in school settings

Correct Answer: B

7. Which of the following is an example of a natural environment for Early Intervention services?

- A. The child's home
- B. A playground
- C. Childcare settings
- D. All of the above

Correct Answer: D

8. Parents and caregivers have the right to ask questions and participate in decisions about services.

- A. True
- B. False

Correct Answer: A

9. If a family disagrees with a decision made during Early Intervention, they have rights and options to address concerns.

- A. True
- B. False

Correct Answer: A

10. What is one important goal of Early Intervention?

- A. Helping children participate in everyday activities and routines
- B. Replacing family involvement
- C. Limiting services to medical appointments only
- D. Testing children every week

Correct Answer: A

Scoring Guide (Optional)

9–10 Correct:

Great job! You have a strong understanding of Early Intervention services and family rights.

6–8 Correct:

You have a solid foundation. There may be a few areas where additional information could be helpful.

0–5 Correct:

That's okay! Early Intervention can feel overwhelming at first. This quiz is a great starting point for learning more and asking questions.

Family Reflection Questions (Optional)

Please feel free to complete this three question google form with thoughts and suggestions.

Every family's journey is unique. Learning about Early Intervention takes time, and asking questions is an important part of advocating for your child. You are an essential part of your child's team.