ARTICLES FOR THE LANCHESTER VOICE

The Methodist Church is planning to submit a regular monthly article for the Lanchester Voice. The aim is to be more visible, to witness to the community, encourage and make people feel welcome. Each month, we plan to include two or three short pieces, with a total length of around 600 words. In the upcoming edition, for example, we'll be featuring articles about the recent walk to Holy Island, donations to the food bank, and the Prayer Space—just to give a flavour of the kind of content we're looking for.

Helen Thomas is coordinating the contributions alongside Keith Brown, the editor. If you have an idea or something you'd like to contribute, please do get in touch. Your input will help us reflect the life of the church and its place within the community.

You can contact Helen by phone 07712425623 or email hdbthomas@live.com Thank you.

PILGRIMAGE SATURDAY 9TH MAY

As part of our year of pilgrimage opportunities, we will be prayer walking our village on Saturday 9th May between 10 – 12. There are ways for us all to join in so please do put the date in your diary! We won't be walking en masse as we did last month, instead you are encouraged to walk with one or two others in a small group or as a family, or even to walk around on your own if you prefer. Either way the idea is to pause to pray at different points around our village e.g. the schools, shops, other churches etc. You can decide for yourself how long you take and how far you go so this is something which should be accessible to most people.

Those who are not able to physically walk around the village can spend some time sitting on the benches in our church garden (or inside the church if the weather is not too good) and pray for the village from there. Prayer cards will be available from in church with a picture of some of the different places around Lanchester and prayers for each place written which can be read out at each location if this is something which you would find helpful.

You are encouraged to start and /or finish your prayer walk in church where you can enjoy a hot drink at the coffee morning too! If you are not able to take part on 9th May please consider prayer walking our village at another time which suits you. Any questions please just ask! Many thanks Sarah Hume sarahruthume@gmail.com
