OBSERVATIONS WITH CAVEATS

[And now, my biannual¹ rant² against “Ordinary Time”]

The Easter Season has ended. [Sad emoji] With the sung double Alleluia of the Dismissal at Mass on Pentecost Sunday, we are catapulted out of the time of basking in the joy of the Resurrection (50 days), where we are able to absorb that joy (if we try), and back into the “rest of the liturgical calendar” which proceeds until Advent begins, wherein the whole cycle of Salvation History starts anew. Hopefully, we’ve made good use of the duration of the Easter Season to imbibe and practice Easter joy,³ because now we’re on deck to put it into practice!

In the Church’s Traditional Calendar, the Sundays after Pentecost,⁴ stretching out until late November/early December, were all counted as, logically, “the Sundays after Pentecost”, but not simply because that is their location but because that is their purpose: if we have received the Holy Spirit at Pentecost (and we have, or at least He’s come to be received; whether we attend to that or not is the choice of our actions), then we are supposed to, in the weeks that follow,⁵ let that same Spirit work in and through us, so that we – yes, you and I – might fulfill the Great Commission which Christ gave us: “Make disciples of all nations . . .” That’s our job!

The “Sundays after Pentecost” remind us that Pentecost is not only a single moment, where something miraculous happened⁶ but also that the whole year (and, thereby, the rest of time, the rest of the “Age”, is open to the constant outpouring of the Spirit’s Power, which He never ceases to offer.

The “new” liturgical calendar, which came into force in 1969, changed the age-old, tried and true focus somewhat. The Sundays from Pentecost to Advent, together with the Sundays between the Epiphany and Lent⁷ have been lumped together in what is called, oh so unhappily, “Ordinary Time. The logic, I assume, is that everything that is not in a “special season” (Advent, Christmas, Lent, Easter) belongs to the same “substance”: Ordinary Time.⁸ This also leads to the complication that some of the weeks of “ordinary time” disappear – different ones each year – because of the variability of the beginning/ending of Lent.⁹

Could there be a more infelicitous term? Ordinary? There is nothing ordinary about it! The intent, I believe, was to indicate “ordinal time”: ordinal numbers¹⁰ indicate position in a sequence: first, second, third, fourth, etc. Even a pedant and logolept¹¹ like myself, finds the use of “ordinal” to be, well, pedantic. And unnecessarily recondite. And dumb. But even worse! The use of the word “ordinary”, however well intended, destroys the mystery and importance of this season, the liturgical calendar, and the life-giving connection to the Spirit’s Coming at Pentecost.

Anyway, a very unordinary and Spirit-filled Season of the Sundays after Pentecost to you all!

¹ As we (in both cases abruptly) leave the Easter Season and as we leave Epiphanytide.

² Slightly tongue-in-cheek and slightly serious.

³ Yes, joy has to be practiced! While the gift of joy flows from the presence of the Holy Spirit in our lives, the actuation of that gift requires some effort on our part. Joy is not simply a feeling (though there’s some of that) but it is a state of mind and of being, almost always under attack from the world and its illusions, needing our attention and habituation. That’s one of the reasons I am so insistent on saying “Christ is Risen” and hoping for the response, “Indeed He is Risen” – so that we strengthen the muscle, so to speak, of reminding ourselves of the joy in which we are called to live.

⁵ Or, symbolically, in the rest of time itself, since the whole year is dedicated to this.

⁶ And look at what it did to the Apostles! They were weak, timid, frightened men until the Spirit came; afterwards, they were Heroes of the Faith, brave, tireless, undaunted, joyful, exuberant, and courageous in their proclaiming Christ everywhere – what we, too, can become, are called to become.

⁷ Crushing unnecessarily and harshly the sweet little “pre-Lenten” season of Septuagesima – but more on that some other time.

⁸ There is, I think, a quite cogent argumentation against this: in the global view of the Church Year, there is a great difference of kind between the time between Christmas/Epiphany and Lent and from Pentecost to Advent. But that, too, is another story.

⁹ I concede, however, that the Traditional Calendar also had similar difficulties between the end of the Season after Pentecost and the beginning of Advent. Calendars are, indeed, very tricky, perhaps a sign that we fit awkwardly into time? Think about it!

¹⁰ As opposed to Cardinal Numbers: one, two, three, four, etc.

¹¹ I couldn’t help myself. Sorry.

St Patrick Church Lectors Needed

The ministry of Proclaiming the Word of God is looking for new lectors for all Masses, especially for the 7:45 am Sunday Mass. On average, lectors are scheduled to read twice a month. Christmas and Easter are a little busier. Lectors are given a workbook with all the readings for the year from which they can practice. There is a training session for each new lector along with constant monitoring if needed.

Proclaiming the Word at Mass will increase your knowledge of Scripture as well as enrich your understanding of our Catholic faith. It is a very rewarding ministry. If interested, or if you have questions, please call Stephen Folan at 516-671-2601 and leave a message.

Liturgy of the Word

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son. The life and teachings of Jesus reveal to us that God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit are a community of persons who live together as one in a perfect unity of life and love with one another. As such, we are called to model our lives on the Most Holy Trinity by seeking to give God glory in all we do and by living in love and unity with God and with one another. In Today's reading from Exodus, the lord revealed himself to Moses directly as kind, merciful and slow to anger. In the second reading, St. Paul stresses to the Corinthians the importance of living in peace. The Gospel reminds us that God so loved the world that he gave his only Son so that all who believe him might have eternal life.

Dear Friends of the Feast of Saint Rocco!

We're excited to announce the 2026 Feast of Saint Rocco!

For more than 50 years, we've been celebrating the Feast of Saint Rocco! As you have been such a great part of our past, we want you to be part of the future of this great event!

As you know, the Feast has a special place in the hearts (and calendars) of so many people from near and far; they come for the food, fun, family, Faith and usually some more food! And we're happy to welcome them. Each year, I enjoy hearing stories from so many people about the role the Feast has played in their lives.

As the principal fund-raiser for our parish, the Feast plays an important practical role in the life of the Church of Saint Rocco, the only Italian National Parish in the Diocese of Rockville Centre.

Your generous donation allows the Church of Saint Rocco to continue the great tradition of the Feast and offer again a wonderful experience of welcome and much-needed joy to so many people. At the same time, you will be helping to build a bright and stable future for the Church of Saint Rocco and for our ability to celebrate and pass on our Italian heritage.

A great "Thank You" for your prayer, your support and your generosity in the past. And we look forward to seeing you at what is, as we all know, "The Best Feast in the East."

Dom Gabriel Rach, Can Reg

Éxodo 34, 4b-6, 8-9

Este encuentro entre Moisés y Dios tiene lugar en el Monte Sinaí después que los israelitas han pecado adorando a un becerro de oro. Aun así Dios los perdona y está dispuesto a renovar la alianza con Israel. Moisés escucha a Dios identificarse con la misericordia, la bondad, el perdón y la fidelidad. En beneficio de los fieles, Moisés busca el perdón de Dios.

2 Corintios 13, 11-13

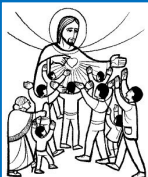

En esta despedida a los cristianos de Corintio, Pablo les aconseja cooperar unos con otros y vivir en paz. Cuando se encuentren deben saludarse con amabilidad como verdaderos seguidores de Cristo. En la bendición final, Pablo da a sus amigos la bendición de la Trinidad.

Juan 3, 16-18

El verbo "amó" indica un acto puntual y definitivo que expresa la totalidad de Dios. Dios es amor. Y el amor no vive solo, sino que se derrama en un objeto, que en este caso es la humanidad. La finalidad del envío es que la humanidad tenga vida por la fe en Cristo. Creer en Cristo es aceptarlo como Hijo de Dios y como Salvador

Lo que dará vida, alegría, paz y unión a nuestras familias, será, vivir en el amor de Dios que se nos da con tanta abundancia. Siendo reflejo de él, en todas nuestras relaciones; recordando y experimentando, en oración, lo que ha hecho por nosotros; practicando la misericordia y la compasión con quienes están cerca de nosotros. La fiestas que celebramos como familia reflejan esa presencia y unión íntima del Dios que es uno y trino. Y nos dan vida, esperanza y energía para seguir adelante.

Un solo Dios en tres Personas: El Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo

La Iglesia dedica el siguiente domingo después de Pentecostés a la celebración del día de la Santísima Trinidad, un misterio es todo aquello que no podemos entender con la razón. Es algo que sólo podemos comprender cuando Dios nos lo revela. El misterio de la Santísima Trinidad - Un sólo Dios en tres Personas distintas-, es el misterio central de la fe y de la vida cristiana, pues es el misterio de Dios en sí mismo. Aunque es un dogma difícil de entender, fue el primero que entendieron los Apóstoles. Después de la Resurrección, comprendieron que Jesús era el Salvador enviado por el Padre. Y, cuando experimentaron la acción del Espíritu Santo dentro de sus corazones en Pentecostés, comprendieron que el único Dios era Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo.

Los católicos creemos que la Trinidad es Una. No creemos en tres dioses, sino en un sólo Dios en tres Personas distintas. No es que Dios esté dividido en tres, pues cada una de las tres personas es enteramente Dios. Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo tienen la misma naturaleza, la misma divinidad, la misma eternidad, el mismo poder, la misma perfección; son un sólo Dios. Además, sabemos que cada una de las Personas de la Santísima Trinidad está totalmente contenida en las otras dos, pues hay una comunión perfecta entre ellas. Con todo, las personas de la Santísima Trinidad son distintas entre sí, dada la diversidad de su misión: Dios Hijo-por quien son todas las cosas- es enviado por Dios Padre, es nuestro Salvador. Dios Espíritu Santo-en quien son todas las cosas- es el enviado por el Padre y por el Hijo, es nuestro Santificador. Lo vemos claramente en la Creación, en la Encarnación y en Pentecostés en la Creación, Dios Padre está como principio de todo lo que existe. En la Encarnación, Dios se encarna, por amor a nosotros, en Jesús, para liberarnos del pecado y llevarnos a la vida eterna. En Pentecostés, el Padre y el Hijo se hacen presentes en la vida del hombre en la Persona del Espíritu Santo, cuya misión es santificarnos, iluminándonos y ayudándonos con sus dones a alcanzar la vida eterna. Para explicar este gran misterio, existen ciertos símbolos que son entendibles a nuestra razón: La Santísima Trinidad es simbolizada como un triángulo. Cada uno de los vértices es parte del mismo triángulo y sin embargo cada uno es distinto también podemos simbolizar a la Santísima Trinidad como una vela encendida: La vela en sí misma simboliza al Padre, la cera que escurre es el Hijo, que procede del Padre y la llama encendida es el Espíritu Santo. Los tres son "vela", pero son distintos entre sí. Hay quienes simbolizan a la Santísima Trinidad en forma de trébol. Cada una de las hojas es "trébol" pero son distintas entre sí. ¿Qué hacemos al persignarnos? "En el nombre del Padre y del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo" Es costumbre de los católicos repetir frecuentemente estas palabras, principalmente al principio y al fin de nuestras acciones. Cada vez que hacemos la Señal de la Cruz sobre nuestro cuerpo, recordamos el misterio de la Santísima Trinidad. En el nombre del Padre: Ponemos la mano sobre la frente, señalando el cerebro que controla todo nuestro cuerpo, recordando en forma simbólica que Dios es la fuente de nuestra vida...y del Hijo: Colocamos la mano en el pecho, donde está el corazón, que simboliza al amor. Recordamos con ello que, por amor a los hombres, Jesucristo se encarnó, murió y resucitó para librarnos del pecado y llevarnos a la vida eterna...Y del Espíritu Santo: Colocamos la mano en el hombro izquierdo y luego en el derecho, recordando que el Espíritu Santo nos ayuda a cargar con el peso de nuestra vida, el que nos ilumina y nos da la gracia para vivir de acuerdo con los mandatos de Jesucristo. Algunas personas argumentan que no es verdad porque no podemos entender el misterio de la Santísima Trinidad a través de la razón. Esto es cierto, no podemos entenderlo con la sola razón, necesitamos de la fe ya que se trata de un misterio. Es un misterio hermoso en el que Dios nos envía a su Hijo para salvarnos.

Coro De Niños La Voz De Dios

A LA TRINIDAD

A Dios el Padre, Dios el Hijo, Dios Espíritu Santo.

Demos Gloria, Alabanza y exaltemos por siempre.

1.- En el principio de los tiempos nuestro Padre Dios, creó el Cielo y la tierra en esplendor. Nos dio la luz, nos dio la vida y nos heredó, un mundo nuevo creado con amor.

2.- El amor de nuestro padre es muy grande, que entregó a su hijo en la cruz; para que todo aquel que cree en él no muera y tenga vida solamente en él.

3.- Jesucristo prometió enviar su Espíritu, para morar eternamente en nosotros. El Espíritu es poder para ir a proclamar sin temor la palabra del Señor.

OFERTORIO

NICARAGÜENSE

Te ofrecemos, padre nuestro, con el vino y con el pan, nuestras penas y alegría, el trabajo y nuestro afán.

1.- Como el trigo de los cam-pos bajo el signo de la cruz, se transformen nuestras vidas en el cuerpo de Jesús.

2.- A los pobres de la tierra, a los que sufriendo están, cambia su dolor en vino como la uva en el lagar.

3.- Estos dones son el signo del esfuerzo de unidad que los hombres realizamos en el campo y la ciudad.

UN MANDAMIENTO NUEVO

Un mandamiento nuevo nos da el Señor que nos amemos todos como nos ama Dios.

1.- La señal de los cristianos es amarse como hermanos.

2.- Como a mí me ama el Padre, así yo los he amado.

3.- El que no ama a sus hermanos miente si a Dios dice que ama.

4.- Donde existe amor fraterno Cristo está y está la Iglesia.

5.- Amar es estar al lado del que es pobre y olvidado.

6.- No amemos de palabra, sino de obra y de verdad.

7.- Cristo, luz, verdad y vida, al perdón y amor invita.

8.- En Jesús somos hermanos si de veras perdonamos.

9.- Perdonemos al hermano como Cristo ha enseñado.

CREO EN JESUS

Creo en Jesús, creo en Jesús, Él es mi amigo, es mi alegría, Él es mi amor. Creo en Jesús, creo en Jesús, Él es mi Salvador.

1.- Él llamó a mi puerta, me invitó a compartir su heredad; seguiré a su lado, llevaré su mensaje de paz.

2.- Ayudé al enfermo, y le traje la Felicidad defendió el humilde, combatió la mentira y el mal.

3.- Enseñó a Zaqueo a partir su hacienda y su pan; alabó a la viuda, porque dio cuanto pudo ella dar.
