2. Education, Ministry Training & Qualifications Please list any theological education, ministry training, worship-leading or music qualifications, safeguarding courses, or other relevant training. Include dates, awarding institutions, and (where applicable) instruments studied or musical grades achieved.

3. Ministry, Employment & Voluntary Work Experience

Provide a full history (with dates) of your experience in Christian ministry, worship leading, music ministry, pastoral care, teaching, mentoring, or leadership — paid or voluntary.

Include responsibilities, size and type of congregations served, musical styles used, and key outcomes where relevant.

4. Church Involvement & Spiritual Journey

Outline your current and previous church involvement, including dates, roles held, worship or music ministries served in, and any leadership responsibilities.

You may also include a brief summary of your Christian journey and your sense of calling to worship ministry and church leadership.

5. Motivation & Suitability for the Role

Please explain:

- Why you feel called to serve in worship and music ministry
- The gifts, skills, and qualities you would bring to this role
- Your approach to planning and leading worship
- Any particular passions (e.g., songwriting, liturgy, musical arrangement, team development, pastoral care, evangelism, creative arts)
- What you hope to learn or develop through this role

6. Safeguarding, Health & Wellbeing

Please provide information about any disability, health condition, or wellbeing needs that we should be aware of so that we can support you appropriately in this ministry role. This helps us ensure safe practice and make reasonable adjustments where needed.

7. References

Two references are required:

- One pastoral/church leader (e.g., senior pastor, elder, ministry leader)
- One professional or personal referee (not a family member)
