Keynote Speaker Biographies

The Endorser as Coach

J. Val Hastings, MCC, is the Founder and President of Coaching4Clergy, which provides specialized training for pastors, church leaders and coaches as well as the President of Coaching4Todays Leaders. He is the author of the book The Next Great Awakening: How to Empower God's People with a Coach Approach to Ministry and the e-book The E3-Church: Empowered, Effective and Entrepreneurial Leadership That Will Keep Your Church Alive. Val currently holds the designation of Master Certified Coach through the International Coach Federation, the highest coaching designation.

Emotional Intelligence: Exploring the Fundamental Science & Art of Transformational Leadership and Organizational Resilience

Sarah Spradlin is Founder and CEO of Vitruvian Advantage, Central Virginia's top full-service workforce development firm. After nearly 10 years as an active duty Marine Corps officer, Dr. Spradlin transitioned to serve as the first female principal staff director at United States Marine Corps Forces, Special Operations Command specializing in large scale workforce development, talent management, and executive coaching. She is a leading expert in the field of emotional intelligence as it relates to talent acquisition planning, transformational leadership, and organizational resilience.

Intentional Leadership: Why Understanding Ourselves and Others Matters

William Hood After 29 years of service in the United States Navy as a Navy Chaplain, Will retired in 2015. After leaving the Navy, Will founded Eunoia Productivity Solutions working in the areas of performance, leadership, emotional intelligence and corporate and individual coaching. Will is partnered with Equilibria, a leader in personality and behavioral training that focuses on self-awareness, personal intervention and individual and team performance. Will has developed equine training so human clients better understand communication styles. Will is involved with equine veteran outreach Warhorse For Veterans in Kansas City, Missouri and Restoration Ranch in Bastrop, Texas.

Non-Traditional Partners Supporting Our Veterans' Caregivers - A Role for NCMFAF

Daniel Look, is the Windshadow Group CEO. After completing his education at Ohio Wesleyan University, Dan held positions in senior living as Dining Services Director, Regional Director, Regional Vice President, and Vice President of Marketing and Development before founding Dining Management Resources in 1984. He built DMR into an industry leader for development of self-directed dining programs, working with over 800 communities. Most recently, Dan was the Chief Strategy Officer for National Lutheran Communities and Services (NLCS) in Rockville, MD. In this role he oversaw the strategic initiatives advancing the mission and vision of the organization. In doing so, he formed non-traditional partnerships to further NLCS' mission and fostered alignment of daily activities supporting those projects.

The Very Rev. Wollom A. Jensen, DA, Capt., Chc., U.S. Navy (Retired)

Dr. Jensen was recently Canon to the Bishop for Armed Forces and Federal Ministries, a position he held for seven years until 2017. As Canon he served as chief of staff, training event planner and coordinator, speech writer and deputy ecclesiastical endorser. While in this role Dr. Jensen was the chair of the Endorsers Conference for Veterans Affairs Chaplaincy and a member of the Executive Committee of National Conference on Ministry to the Armed Forces. Between 1982 and 2000 Dr. Jensen was a chaplain in the U.S. Navy, where he held every active duty and reserve chaplain corps position from unit chaplain to major claimant chaplain, including three years as a speechwriter to the Vice Chief of Naval Operations.

Religious Liberty Update

Daniel Blomberg is counsel for Becket. Before joining Becket, he clerked for Chief Judge Alice M. Batchelder of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit and served as litigation counsel with the Alliance Defending Freedom. Daniel's clients have included an international order of nuns, the world's largest religious media organization, synagogues, members of the U.S.

military, religious healthcare ministries, peaceful protestors, halfway houses, religious colleges, state legislators, homeless shelters, religious business owners, an art gallery, and churches. Daniel has represented a wide variety of faith groups.

Religious Liberty Update Panelists

Michael Berry is Deputy General Counsel and Director of Military Affairs for First Liberty Institute. He joined First Liberty in 2013 after serving for seven years on active duty as an attorney with the U.S. Marine Corps. As Deputy General Counsel for First Liberty Institute, Mr. Berry has participated in some of the nation's most high-profile religious liberty cases. As a recognized subject-matter expert on religious liberty within the military, Mr. Berry has testified before Congress and he is routinely invited to speak across the nation about matters affecting religious freedom within the military.

Daniel Blomberg (See Keynote Speaker Biography)

Jennifer Hawks, a native of Germantown, Tennessee, is the associate general counsel at the Baptist Joint Committee for Religious Liberty. She provides legal analysis on church-state issues that arise before Congress, the courts and administrative agencies. Hawks also assists in the BJC's education efforts and responds to pastors and other constituents who have questions about church-state matters.

Before coming to the Baptist Joint Committee, Hawks was the director of advocacy and outreach services for the Family Abuse Center in Waco, Texas, where she conducted a legal clinic and led educational programs. She previously worked for two judges in the state of Mississippi and served as a staff attorney for the Mississippi Department of Human Services. Hawks also served in both paid and volunteer ministry positions in Tennessee, Mississippi and Texas. She has published papers in the journal of the Texas Baptist Historical Society and Baptist History & Heritage Journal.

Nathan Lewin, Esq. is a cofounder and partner in Lewin & Lewin, LLP, where he engages in trial and appellate litigation in federal and state courts. Mr. Lewin has been listed in Best Lawyers in America since its first editions and was included in “Washington’s Best 75 Lawyers” in the April 2002 Washingtonian magazine.

He has taught at Harvard, Columbia, Chicago, Georgetown, and George Washington universities. Mr. Lewin has served as president of the American Section of the International Association of Jewish Lawyers and Jurists and as President of the Jewish Community Council of Greater Washington.
