Children's Liturgy at 10am Mass on Sundays. Volunteers needed

We are seeking one or more volunteers to help with our Children's Liturgy at the 10 am Sunday Mass. This involves a brief 20 to 25 minutes session from the beginning of Mass to the Offertory, helping our younger parishioners engage with the Gospel.

This wonderful initiative greatly supports the education of our children. It builds on the success of the Saturday 6 pm Mass program, which has been beautifully led by Miss Emma March for the last years.

If you would like to help, please speak directly to our Parish Priest, Fr Eduard or to Mrs Maureen Hart.

Meanwhile, until the above has been organized, young children, accompanied by their parents/parent, are more than welcome, if they wish so, to use the library on Sundays at the 10am Mass, where activity sheets, colouring pages, and crayons will be provided for the children to use. Then, at the Offertory, everyone can return into the church.
