Dear friends,

Last week, Pope Leo released a special letter, technically called an Apostolic Exhortation, entitled Dilexi Te. An Apostolic Exhortation is a teaching document from the pope, which often aims to encourage a particular virtue or activity. Like many papal encyclicals, apostolic exhortations have often developed themes of the Church's social teaching. Just as Pope Francis completed the exhortation that was started by Pope Benedict XVI, Lumen Fidei, Pope Leo XIV now completes the work Pope Francis started before his death.

Dilexi te means "I have loved you" and echoes the title of Pope Francis' last encyclical letter Dilexit Nos ("he loved us"), on the devotion to the Sacred Heart. Over the last several months we read this encyclical in our weekly bulletin.

Pope Leo's Apostolic Exhortation is addressed to all Christians on love for the poor. This exhortation is all about God's love for the most vulnerable and marginalized people in our society. Beginning today and for the next several months we will read Pope Leo's thoughts on the Christian life for the first time. Signed on the feast of St Francis of Assisi, the document imparts the lesson that St Francis learnt personally and embodied—that a preferential love for the marginalized can renew both the Church and society.

Leaning into the journey of life

P.S. Another 11 families have made their pledge to our Catholic Ministries Appeal inching us ever closer to our goal. So far, 39% of our parish families have helped us reach 70% of our goal. With the help of the remaining 60% of our parish families I am confident we will be able to reach, and even exceed our parish goal.

What I Have Learned So Far

Meditation is old and honorable,
so why should I not sit,
every morning of my life,
on the hillside,
looking into the shining world?
Because, properly attended to,
delight, as well as havoc,
is suggestion.
Can one be passionate about the just, the ideal,
the sublime, and the holy,
and yet commit
to no labor in its cause?
I don't think so.

All summations have a beginning,
all effect has a story,
all kindness begins
with the sown seed.
Thought buds toward radiance.

The gospel of light is the crossroads of indolence, or action.
Be ignited, or be gone.
—Mary Oliver

STEWARDSHIP: The Lord's Way

Today's theme is perseverance—Moses keeping his hands upraised throughout the battle, Paul urging Timothy to stay with the task of preaching and teaching, and the widow appealing to the corrupt judge. To be faithful stewards of God's gifts, we too must persevere in the roles to which we are called.

ON LOVE FOR THE POOR

We are reading from the Apostolic Exhortation Dilexi Te of Pope Leo to all Christians on the Love of the Poor

"I HAVE LOVED YOU" (Rev 3:9). The Lord speaks these words to a Christian community that, unlike some others, had no influence or resources, and was treated instead with violence and contempt: "You have but little power... I will make them come and bow down before your feet" (Rev 3:8-9). This text reminds us of the words of the canticle of Mary: "He has cast down the mighty from their thrones, and lifted up the lowly; he has filled the hungry with good things, and sent the rich away empty" (Lk 1:52-53).

This declaration of love, taken from the Book of Revelation, reflects the inexhaustible mystery that Pope Francis reflected upon in the Encyclical Dilexit Nos on the human and divine love of the heart of Jesus Christ. There we saw how Jesus identified himself "with the lowest ranks of society" and how, with his love poured out to the end, he confirms the dignity of every human being, especially when "they are weak, scorned, or suffering." As we contemplate Christ's love, "we too are inspired to be more attentive to the sufferings and needs of others, and confirmed in our efforts to share in his work of liberation as instruments for the spread of his love."

For this reason, in continuity with the Encyclical Dilexit Nos, Pope Francis was preparing in the last months of his life an Apostolic Exhortation on the Church's care for the poor, to which he gave the title Dilexi Te, as if Christ speaks those words to each of them, saying: "You have but little power," yet "I have loved you" (Rev 3:9). I am happy to make this document my own — adding some reflections — and to issue it at the beginning of my own pontificate, since I share the desire of my beloved predecessor that all Christians come to appreciate the close connection between Christ's love and his summons to care for the poor. I too consider it essential to insist on this path to holiness, for "in this call to recognize him in the poor and the suffering, we see revealed the very heart of Christ, his deepest feelings and choices, which every saint seeks to imitate."

CHAPTER ONE A FEW ESSENTIAL WORDS

Jesus' disciples criticized the woman who poured costly perfumed oil on his head. But the woman saw in Jesus the lowly and suffering Messiah on whom she could pour out all her love. What comfort that anointing must have brought to the very head that within a few days would be pierced by thorns! It was a small gesture, of course, but those who suffer know how great even a small gesture of affection can be, and how much relief it can bring. Jesus understood this and told the disciples that the memory of her gesture would endure: "Wherever this good news is proclaimed in the whole world, what she has done will be told in remembrance of her" (Mt 26:13). The simplicity of that woman's gesture speaks volumes. No sign of affection, even the smallest, will ever be forgotten, especially if it is shown to those who are suffering, lonely or in need, as was the Lord at that time.

Love for the Lord, then, is one with love for the poor. The same Jesus who tells us, "The poor you will always have with you" (Mt 26:11), also promises the disciples: "I am with you always" (Mt 28:20). We likewise think of his saying: "Just as you did it to one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did it to me" (Mt 25:40). This is not a matter of mere human kindness but a revelation: contact with those who are lowly and powerless is a fundamental way of encountering the Lord of history. In the poor, he continues to speak to us.
