SAINT JOSEPH CATHOLIC CHURCH & SCHOOL

VANDERBURGH COUNTY EVANSVILLE, INDIANA ESTABLISHED IN 1841

JUNE 15, 2025 FEAST OF THE HOLY TRINITY

Dear friends,

As write this letter, our great rummage sale crews have been busy sorting and pricing all the items for our rummage sale. Many of these folks have been at it for many years and take care of the different "departments" for our rummage sale. It's like our own version of Walmart! It's great to see so many young folks coming to offer their help as well. Special thanks to the members of the Altar Society for making and selling their wonderfully delicious cinnamon kuchen!

This is the time of the year that we have lots of different people taking care of a wide variety of projects in our parish. Week in and week out our great lawn mowing crews keep our parish campus looking so great. Last week a bunch of guys from the Men's Club took out some of the old cabinets in several of our classrooms in preparation for installing new cabinets. We're also taking out the old radiators that used to provide heat for the classroom. Since we installed new heating and air conditioning units in the school several years ago, these units were no longer being used. With their removal, it will allow us to provide more storage space for the each of the classrooms. The new cabinets will be installed later this summer. At that time, all the classrooms in our school will have had new cabinets installed. Special thanks to Alan Blankenberger and Glenn Givens for taking care of some moisture leaks in the school.

This past week Dave & Julie Market, Toni Askins, Carolyn Hutchison, Ruth Burk, Marleen Voelker, and Margie Hartman put together all the packets for our chicken dinner tickets. They made quick work of this project. You should be receiving them in the mail this week. We're sending 4 tickets to each family with the hopes that you can purchase them for your family or sell them to your friends. People have already been asking about chicken dinner tickets for this year, so they won't be hard to sell. I know many of you will want more than 4 tickets, so just call/text me (812-499-9074) and I will get them to you. Or you can stop by the office (812-963-3273) and we can make some tickets available for you. Remember, the dinner is July 27 and, as in the past will be a drive thru carryout only. Tickets are $15.

Thanks to all the folks who have returned their sold raffle tickets. So far 141 families have bought/sold their raffle tickets. We're off to a great start.

And finally, today is Father's Day, a good time for us to give thanks to the fathers who have given us life and to all the men who have "fathered" us and blessed us with their father energy. There is such a great need for good and holy men in our world today. They are the ones who are willing to show up each day and offer the gift they have. They give life, even when they don't think they are doing anything. We are blessed by them!

Leaning into the journey of life,

Fr. Gene Schroeder

CIRCLING FATHERHOOD

My mother exalts her long-gone father.
Driving home, laments the failings of my father.

Sees her ex-husband in my excuses,
tells me: That's just like your father.

On holiday, he sneaks away to work;
I take a work call. Like son, like father.

Before, I tried to outrun my shadow
when sun met twilight, like Earth's late father.

God sacrificed his son for his life's work.

So we sing heavenward to honor the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit—Forgive me,

for I have sinned, become my own father—
not who raised me, but those who claim me as theirs. The stone-jawed men who father havoc through absence, posture a myth for any gaze. How many don't know their father?

I'm at my kids' school, bath time, rubbing their backs before bed. They will know their father as the one who showed up & always stayed,
bleary-eyed,
did anything to father.

My mother fears she will be forgotten,
invoking Time, like others, as a father.

My wife notes the shifting sky above us.

What gravity gives birth to a father?

ANNIVERSARY

Thank you to all the people who provided the luncheon for our family after the funeral of our mother, Marie Gumbel. It was a beautiful service and a wonderful luncheon. Many of our extended family travelled to the funeral from out of town, so the luncheon was especially appreciated.

Thank you for any manner of support you have given to Rose Weiss and her children throughout her life and especially during her transition to the new reality she long desired. We all feel blessed to have travelled the exhausting journey with her to her final resting place. May she rest in peace. The children of Rose Weiss

THE LOVE OF THE HEART OF JESUS

We continue reading from Pope Francis' recent letter to the church "On the Love of the Heart of Jesus Christ."

A BROAD CURRENT OF THE INTERIOR LIFE

Devotion to the heart of Christ reappears in the spiritual journey of many saints, all quite different from each other; in every one of them, the devotion takes on new hues. Saint Vincent de Paul, for example, used to say that what God desires is the heart: "God asks primarily for our heart - our heart - and that is what counts. How is it that a man who has no wealth will have greater merit than someone who has great possessions that he gives up? Because the one who has nothing does it with greater love; and that is what God especially wants..." This means allowing one's heart to be united to that of Christ. "What blessing should a Sister not hope for from God if she does her utmost to put her heart in the state of being united with the heart of our Lord!"

At times, we may be tempted to consider this mystery of love as an admirable relic from the past, a fine spirituality suited to other times. Yet we need to remind ourselves constantly that, as a saintly missionary once said, "this divine heart, which let itself be pierced by an enemy's lance in order to pour forth through that sacred wound the sacraments by which the Church was formed, has never ceased to love".

More recent saints, like Saint Pius of Pietrelcina, Saint Teresa of Calcutta and many others, have spoken with deep devotion of the heart of Christ. Here I would also mention the experiences of Saint Faustina Kowalska, which re-propose devotion to the heart of Christ by greatly emphasizing the glorious life of the risen Lord and his divine mercy. Inspired by her experiences and the spiritual legacy of Saint Józef Sebastian Pelczar (1842-1924), Saint John Paul II intimately linked his reflections on divine mercy with devotion to the heart of Christ: "The Church seems in a singular way to profess the mercy of God and to venerate it when she directs herself to the heart of Christ. In fact, it is precisely this drawing close to Christ in the mystery of his heart which enables us to dwell on this point of the revelation of the merciful love of the Father, a revelation that constituted the central content of the messianic mission of the Son of Man". Saint John Paul also spoke of the Sacred Heart in very personal terms, acknowledging that, "it has spoken to me ever since my youth".

The enduring relevance of devotion to the heart of Christ is especially evident in the work of evangelization and education carried out by the numerous male and female religious congregations whose origins were marked by this profoundly Christological devotion. Mentioning all of them by name would be an endless undertaking. Let us simply consider two examples taken at random: "The Founder [Saint Daniel Comboni] discovered in the mystery of the heart of Jesus the source of strength for his missionary commitment". "Caught up as we are in the desires of the heart of Jesus, we want people to grow in dignity, as human beings and as children of God. Our starting point is the Gospel, with all that it demands from us of love, forgiveness and justice, and of solidarity with those who are poor and rejected by the world". So too, the many shrines worldwide that are consecrated to the heart of Christ continue to be an impressive source of renewal in prayer and spiritual fervour. To all those who in any way are associated with these spaces of faith and charity I send my paternal blessing.

REBUILDING OUR CHURCH CAMPAIGN UPDATE: This week you should be receiving a report on the status of your pledge to our "Rebuilding our Church" Campaign. That campaign runs from June, 2023 through December of 2025. Along with your pledge status, we have also included an up-to-date report of the money that has been spent through this campaign. We try to be as accurate as we can with these reports, but it is always possible that we have made a mistake. So please check your statement and let us know if there are any corrections that need to be made.

As of this time, over 90% of the pledges made to this campaign have already been paid. It is another tremendous sign of the great love you have for our parish. Your generosity has made it possible for us not only to make repairs to our church but also undertake several other parish projects.
