VANDERBURGH COUNTY EVANSVILLE, INDIANA ESTABLISHED IN 1841

JUNE 21, 2026 THE TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear friends,

Preparations for our Summer Social/Chicken Dinner are continuing. By this time you should have received your chicken dinner tickets. We included 5 tickets for each family with the hope that you will buy/sell the tickets. If all our parish families did that we would sell over 2500 tickets! Our chicken dinners are famous and delicious so the tickets will not be hard to sell. If the past is any indication, we know that many of you will want more than five tickets. Many people have also taken a packet of additional tickets to sell. Let us know how many tickets you need and I will get them to you.

Thanks to the 163 families who have already sold their packet of raffle tickets. Our grand raffle is really the biggest source of income for our social so getting everyone to do their part will go a long way to ensuring its success. We also have additional raffle tickets if anyone can sell some extra.

A big thanks to our "mail crew" who have put together the mailings for our raffle tickets and our chicken dinners tickets. They are also the ones who prepare our monthly newsletter for mailing. These folks are just a few of the many people who continue to offer their time and energy for so many projects in the parish and beyond. Another example is our faithful mowing crews. Great job!

And finally, today is Father's Day, a good time for us to give thanks to the fathers who have given us life and to all the men who have "fathered" us and blessed us with their father energy. There is such a great need for good and holy men in our world today. They are the ones who are willing to show up each day and offer the gift they have. They give life, even when they don't think they are doing anything. We are blessed by them!

Leaning into the journey of life

Fr.. Gene Schroeder

RUMMAGE SALE
THANKS

Our rummage sale volunteers are the greatest. Now we want to take time to celebrate what we have done. So, to all of you who helped in one way or another with our rummage sale, we'd like to treat you to dinner, WEDNESDAY, July 1 at 5:30 PM at the Carriage House in Haubstadt. Come join us for a great meal. Call/text Imogene (812-963-5221) by June 30th and let us know if you can make it.

THE DIAPER BAG EXPRESS IS LEAVING TODAY

Today is the last day to bring your contributions to support the work of Birthright.

FATHER'S DAY BLESSING

Let us praise those fathers who have striven to balance the demands of work, marriage, and children with an honest awareness of both joy and sacrifice.

Let us praise those fathers who, lacking a good model for a father, have worked to become a good father.

Let us praise those fathers who by their own account were not always there for their children, but who continue to offer those children, now grown, their love and support. Let us pray for those fathers who have been wounded by the neglect and hostility of their children.

Let us praise those fathers who, despite divorce, have remained in their children's lives. Let us praise those fathers whose children are adopted, and whose love and support has offered healing.

Let us praise those fathers who, as stepfathers, freely choose the obligation of fatherhood and earned their step children's love and respect. Let us praise those fathers who have lost a child to death, and continue to hold the child in their heart.

Let us praise those men who have no children, but cherish the next generation as if they were their own.

Let us praise those men who have "fathered" us in their role as mentors and guides.

Let us praise those men who are about to become fathers; may they openly delight in their children.

And let us praise those fathers who have died, but live on in our memory and whose love continues to nurture us.

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY

THANKS.....We have many wonderful people to thank after the passing of Marilyn Mossberger, a lovely wife, mother and grandmother. Thanks Fr. Gene, Kristan Gilles and the Altar Society for your kindness and support during this difficult time. Your presence and speaking at the service meant the world to us along with the beautiful hymns which Marilyn cherished, Fr. Gene, we thank you for your weekly visits to Marilyn when she was on hospice care.

We also want to thank Pauline Elpers and Sharon Voelker and the lovely ladies and gentlemen who helped serve the post funeral meal. Thank you for the delicious food. It was truly a gift of care you provided for our families and friends. Marilyn would be smiling if she was here. She would have been so touched by each of you and your dedication to her service. Thank you again to each and every one of you.

This week we continue reading Pope Leo's letter (encyclical) Magnifica Humanitas: On the protection of the human person in the age of artificial intelligence

Building for the common good requires an evangelical language. We must avoid humiliating or antagonistic words, opting rather for a clarity that sheds light and a frankness that unlocks new possibilities. We cannot condone naïve enthusiasms, nor fuel unfounded fears. Instead, let us establish standards for discernment – the dignity of the human person, the universal destination of goods, the preferential option for the poor, care for our common home and peace – and let us translate these standards into practices such as responsible planning, the assessment of human and social impact, the inclusion of the most vulnerable, the promotion of digital literacy and guiding research and industry toward justice and peace.

REMAINING HUMAN

In the recent Ordinary Jubilee Year of 2025, we walked as pilgrims of hope and were blessed with many graces. Strengthened by these gifts, we can move forward with confidence to face the arduous tasks and demanding challenges that lie ahead. In the era of artificial intelligence, when human dignity is threatened by new forms of dehumanization, ours is the pressing duty to remain profoundly human. We must lovingly safeguard the grandeur of humanity bestowed upon us and revealed in its fullness in Christ, the splendor of which no machine can ever replace. True progress always stems from a heart open to others, an intelligence willing to listen and a will that seeks what unites rather than what separates.

I address this heartfelt appeal to all the Catholic faithful, to all Christians and to all men and women of goodwill. Let us not be afraid to get our hands dirty on the “construction site” of our time. Like Nehemiah, let us pray, plan wisely and work perseveringly, placing God at the forefront of our actions and the human person at the center of our choices. Thus, the “rejected stones” – the poor, the sick, the migrants and the least among us – will become the cornerstone, and a solid, welcoming common home will emerge on the earth, where love and faithfulness will finally meet, and righteousness and peace will embrace (cf. Ps 85:10).

This is the blessing we implore from God; and the task that stands before us is that of being builders of communion, rather than architects of Babel. We are to be servants of the coming Kingdom, instead of lords of towers destined for ruin. With the heart of a shepherd and a father, I ask everyone to abandon the construction of yet another Tower of Babel and to join forces in building up the common good, so that humanity will never lose its beauty, and the world once again will come to recognize the human heart as the place where God desires to dwell.

CHAPTER ONE

A DYNAMIC APPROACH FAITHFUL TO THE GOSPEL

In this first chapter, I intend to present synthetically how the Social Doctrine of the Church has taken shape in the recent Papal Magisterium and in the Second Vatican Council, in order to demonstrate its dynamic character. Indeed, in each era the res novae require that this teaching address historical questions in the light of revealed Truth. In this regard, artificial intelligence, too, should not be considered as merely yet another theme to be studied or a crisis to be managed, but rather as a development that challenges the categories of Social Doctrine from within, calling for their further development in fidelity to the Gospel.

This overview, however, would not be very comprehensible if, before reflecting on the contribution of individual popes and their most relevant documents, we do not first clarify some fundamental principles concerning the way in which the Church exists in history and relates to the world. Failing to do so would expose Social Doctrine to the risk of being perceived as an undue interference in “worldly” matters or as an external code of ethics imposed from above. In reality, it stems from a Church that walks alongside humanity, recognizing the autonomy of earthly realities and the distinction between ecclesial and political communities. Indeed, it is for this very reason that she strives to serve the common good.

A CHURCH JOURNEYING THROUGH HUMAN HISTORY

The Church is present in the world as a sign of unity for the entire human family. She recognizes today's questions and challenges as the current setting in which to carry out her particular vocation of listening, dialogue and service, and of being responsive to everything concerning the lives of contemporary men and women. This involvement in people's lives helps the Church understand ever more clearly that her mission has a historical scope and entails a responsibility for the way in which social relations are built.
