SAINT JOSEPH CATHOLIC CHURCH & SCHOOL

VANDERBURGH COUNTY EVANSVILLE, INDIANA ESTABLISHED IN 1841

AUGUST 24, 2025 TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear friends,

Jesus said to his disciples: 'Be compassionate as your Father is compassionate. Do not judge, and you will not be judged yourselves; do not condemn, and you will not be condemned yourselves; grant pardon, and you will be pardoned.'

These words are at the very core of trying to be the heart and mind of Jesus in our world today. In a world where words are used to vilify people and leaders are quick to divide people into those who are for us and those who are against us, these words of Jesus to be compassionate take on an even more important role. How does one "be compassionate?" Consider this story.

Come with me to a third grade classroom..... There is a nine-year-old kid sitting at his desk and all of a sudden, there is a puddle between his feet and the front of his pants are wet. He thinks his heart is going to stop because he cannot possibly imagine how this has happened. It's never happened before, and he knows that when the boys find out he will never hear the end of it. When the girls find out, they'll never speak to him again as long as he lives.

The boy believes his heart is going to stop; he puts his head down and prays this prayer, 'Dear God, this is an emergency! I need help now! Five minutes from now I'm dead meat.'

He looks up from his prayer and here comes the teacher with a look in her eyes that says he has been discovered.

As the teacher is walking toward him, a classmate named Susie is carrying a goldfish bowl that is filled with water. Susie trips in front of the teacher and inexplicably dumps the bowl of water in the boy's lap. The boy pretends to be angry, but all the while is saying to himself, 'Thank you, Lord! Thank you, Lord!'

Now all of a sudden, instead of being the object of ridicule, the boy is the object of sympathy. The teacher rushes him downstairs and gives him gym shorts to put on while his pants dry out. All the other children are on their hands and knees cleaning up around his desk. The sympathy is wonderful. But as life would have it, the ridicule that should have been his has been transferred to someone else - Susie

She tries to help, but they tell her to get out. You've done enough, you klutz.

Finally, at the end of the day, as they are waiting for the bus, the boy walks over to Susie and whispers, 'You did that on purpose, didn't you?' Susie whispers back, 'I wet my pants once too.'

Imagine what would happen if we acted out of this kind of compassion in our day to day lives. We would do well to spend our time and energy trying to stand in the shoes of others rather than defending the rightness of our particular position

Leaning into the journey of life,

Fr. Gene Schroeder

THE WORST THING

The worst thing we ever did
Was put God in the sky
out of reach pulling the divinity
from the leaf
sifting out the holy from our bones
insisting God
isn't bursting dazzlement
through everything we have made a hard commitment to see as ordinary,
stripping the sacred from everywhere
to put in a cloud
man elsewhere,
prying closeness from your heart.

The worst thing we ever did
was take the dance and the song
out of prayer, made it sit up straight and cross its legs
removed it of rejoicing,
wiped clean its hip sway,
its questions, its ecstatic yowl,
its tears.

The worst thing we ever did is pretend
God isn't the easiest thing
in this Universe
available to every soul
in every breath

Each year our Haiti Outreach Committee seeks new sponsors to join our group of generous people who are sponsoring a child's education in Haiti. A person or family can sponsor a student for an annual cost of $400. THE LOVE OF THE HEART OF JESUS

We continue reading from Pope Francis' recent letter to the church "On the Love of the Heart of Jesus Christ."

AN OFFERING TO LOVE

With her great spiritual insight, Saint Therese discovered that we can offer ourselves in another way, without the need to satisfy divine justice but by allowing the Lord's infinite love to spread freely: "O my God! Is your disdained love going to remain closed up within your heart? It seems to me that if you were to find souls offering themselves as victims of holocaust to your love, you would consume them rapidly; it seems to me, too, that you would be happy not to hold back the waves of infinite tenderness within you".

While nothing need be added to the one redemptive sacrifice of Christ, it remains true that our free refusal can prevent the heart of Christ from spreading the "waves of his infinite tenderness" in this world.

Again, this is because the Lord wishes to respect our freedom. More than divine justice, it was the fact that Christ's love might be refused that troubled the heart of Saint Therese, because for her, God's justice is understood only in the light of his love. As we have seen, she contemplated all God's perfections through his mercy, and thus saw them transfigured and resplendent with love. In her words, "even his justice (and perhaps this even more so than the others) seems to me clothed in love".

This was the origin of her Act of Oblation, not to God's justice but to his merciful love. "I offer myself as a victim of holocaust to your merciful love, asking you to consume me incessantly, allowing the waves of infinite tenderness shut up within you to overflow into my soul, and that thus I may become a martyr of your love". It is important to realize that, for Therese, this was not only about allowing the heart of Christ to fill her heart, through her complete trust, with the beauty of his love, but also about letting that love, through her life, spread to others and thus transform the world. Again, in her words, "In the heart of the Church, my Mother, I shall be love... and thus my dream will be realized". The two aspects were inseparably united.

The Lord accepted her offering. We see that shortly thereafter she stated that she felt an intense love for others and maintained that it came from the heart of Christ, prolonged through her. So she told her sister Léonie: "I love you a thousand times more tenderly than ordinary sisters love each other, for I can love you with the heart of our celestial spouse". Later, to Maurice Bellière she wrote, "How I would like to make you understand the tenderness of the heart of Jesus, what he expects from you!"

Sisters and brothers, I propose that we develop this means of offering the heart of Christ as a gift to our world. The most fitting way to do this is for our love to offer the Lord a possibility of spreading, in amends for all those occasions when his love has been rejected or refused. This involves more than simply the "consolation" of Christ of which we spoke in the previous chapter; it finds expression in acts of fraternal love by which we heal the wounds of the Church and of the world. In this way, we offer the healing power of the heart of Christ new ways of expressing itself.

Please remember in your prayers Clem Baehl, the brother of Bob Baehl, and Moni Weinzapfel, the sister of Beth Spaetti, and Karen (Schroeder) Woodruff, the daughter of the late Donald Schroeder, who died this past week. May God grant them eternal rest and may His peace be with all the members of their families and friends.
