SAINT JOSEPH CATHOLIC CHURCH & SCHOOL

VANDERBURGH COUNTY EVANSVILLE, INDIANA ESTABLISHED IN 1841

SEPTEMBER 21, 2025 THE TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear friends,

There was a great crowd that enjoyed our family bingo night last Saturday. Bingo always seems very popular. Maybe it is true that the apostles played a few games of bingo after the last supper before going on to the Garden of Gethsemane! Whatever the reason for the popularity of bingo, one thing for sure is that lots of folks had a great time. Thanks to Jessica Reckelhoff and her crew for organizing this event.

A big thanks as well for all those who have already returned their pledge card for our Catholic Ministries Appeal (formerly the CPC). We've already reached 17% of our goal. Every gift is important and not only enable us to pay our fair share for the operation of our diocese, but it also provides the money to do many good things that benefit all the people in our diocese.

In this digital age, some of you may prefer to use the opportunity to make your donation online. You can do this by going to <https://www.osvhub.com/evdio/giving/funds>. And if you are even more into making your contribution digitally, your pledge card will have a "QR code" you can scan which will take you directly to the online giving portal. If you choose to go this route, you need to wait until October 1 to make your pledge. Pledges made in September will be counted for last year's CMA drive and not our current campaign. If you have any questions about this, text me or give me a call (812-499-9074) and I will walk you through it.

And, in the "every little bit helps category," special thanks to all those who are so conscientious about returning their pledge card to us through the collection in such a way that the return envelope can be used again. You can even be more helpful if you don't seal the envelope. We'll use the envelope anyone when we send other things in the mail, but if you seal the envelope we end up having to tape the envelope shut when we use it for the mail again.

Soon it will be time for the Fall Festival. The folks in the PTO have been hard at work already getting things organized. This year, the Men's Club is taking over the booth that our Knights of St. John have run for so many years. The guys have been trying out some new food items for the booth. The PTO will be making their famous cheesy potato soup on Oct. 5. The Men's club will be making braut burgers for their booth and the PTO booth on Friday afternoon, Oct.

3. Both groups would love to have more folks come and help with these projects as well as working at the booths during the week of the Fall Festival. Any help you can give will be a great benefit.

I am very grateful as well for the tremendous outpouring of support given to our friends in Haiti. So many of you have renewed your student sponsorship of children in our schools and in our Sewing Hope Program. The situation in Haiti is so terrible these days that we can be tempted to given in to the feeling that nothing can be done. But our friends in St. James Parish get up every day and try to live as best they can. And the prayers and financial support you give helps them to know that they are not alone.

Leaning into the journey of life

CAN YOU HELP AT THE FALL FESTIVAL?

The annual Fall Festival will soon be upon us again. This year the St. Joe Men's Club will be staffing the booth formerly run by the Knights of St. John. The Men's Club and the PTO are reaching out to parishioners to offer their help in staffing their booths. It takes a great deal of effort from lots of people to make these fund-raising effort a success. So, if you can offer you time to help, know that it will be greatly appreciated.

Call the school office (812-963-3335) to help out with PTO booth. To offer your help with the Men's Club booth, contact Josh Elfreich (812) 746-2068).

THE LOVE OF THE HEART OF JESUS

We continue reading from Pope Francis' recent letter to the church "On the Love of the Heart of Jesus Christ."

Integrity and Harmony

Jesus is calling you and sending you forth to spread goodness in our world. His call is one of service, a summons to do good, perhaps as a physician, a mother, a teacher or a priest. Wherever you may be, you can hear his call and realize that he is sending you forth to carry out that mission. He himself told us, "I am sending you out" (Lk 10:3). It is part of our being friends with him. For this friendship to mature, however, it is up to you to let him send you forth on a mission in this world, and to carry it out confidently, generously, freely and fearlessly. If you stay trapped in your own comfort zone, you will never really find security; doubts and fears, sorrow and anxiety will always loom on the horizon. Those who do not carry out their mission on this earth will find not happiness, but disappointment. Never forget that Jesus is at your side at every step of the way. He will not cast you into the abyss, or leave you to your own devices. He will always be there to encourage and accompany you. He has promised, and he will do it: "For I am with you always, to the end of the age" (Mt 28:20).

In your own way, you too must be a missionary, like the apostles and the first disciples of Jesus, who went forth to proclaim the love of God, to tell others that Christ is alive and worth knowing. Saint Therese experienced this as an essential part of her oblation to merciful Love: "I wanted to give my Beloved to drink and I felt myself consumed with a thirst for souls". That is your mission as well. Each of us must carry it out in his or her own way; you will come to see how you can be a missionary. Jesus deserves no less. If you accept the challenge, he will enlighten you, accompany you and strengthen you, and you will have an enriching experience that will bring you much happiness. It is not important whether you see immediate results; leave that to the Lord who works in the secret of our hearts. Keep experiencing the joy born of our efforts to share the love of Christ with others.

CONCLUSION

The present document can help us see that the teaching of the social Encyclicals Laudato Si' and Fratelli Tutti is not unrelated to our encounter with the love of Jesus Christ. For it is by drinking of that same love that we become capable of forging bonds of fraternity, of recognizing the dignity of each human being, and of working together to care for our common home.

In a world where everything is bought and sold, people's sense of their worth appears increasingly to depend on what they can accumulate with the power of money. We are constantly being pushed to keep buying, consuming and distracting ourselves, held captive to a demeaning system that prevents us from looking beyond our immediate and petty needs. The love of Christ has no place in this perverse mechanism, yet only that love can set us free from a mad pursuit that no longer has room for a gratuitous love. Christ's love can give a heart to our world and revive love wherever we think that the ability to love has been definitively lost.

The Church also needs that love, lest the love of Christ be replaced with outdated structures and concerns, excessive attachment to our own ideas and opinions, and fanaticism in any number of forms, which end up taking the place of the gratuitous love of God that liberates, enlivens, brings joy to the heart and builds communities. The wounded side of Christ continues to pour forth that stream which is never exhausted, never passes away, but offers itself time and time again to all those who wish to love as he did. For his love alone can bring about a new humanity.

Given in Rome, at Saint Peter's, on 24 October of the year 2024, the twelfth of my Pontificate.
