

AUNT RACHEL'S PLACE

AT FRANKLIN MANOR FARM

Next Generation Nature Nurturers!

The Heart of Our Mission

Our mission is to create a joyful summer experience where children feel seen, supported, and inspired. By nurturing their relationship with nature and with one another, we help build a sense of community, confidence, resilience, and a lifelong love of the outdoors, and care for our earthly home. Scroll down and let us walk you through it!

Our 5-acre farmbased day camp blends outdoor adventure, creativity, and realworld learning in a safe, nurturing environment.

Camp Highlights

- Structured cerebral, emotional, and physical education program
- Gardening & plant science
- Nature exploration
- Nature challenges
- Arts & crafts by the pond
- Team building and communication skills
- Outdoor games and activities
- Supervised Horse and Pony Rides
- Optional swim lessons available (*see Camp Director for details)
- Planned field trips (one per month)
- Daily water & shade breaks
- Maryland Youth Camp Certification–aligned safety

Ages: 5 to 15

Hours: 7:00 AM – 5 PM

Location: Aunt Rachel's Place at Franklin Manor Farm

Dates: June 1 – August 30th

Weekly Camp Tuition
One Child	2 Children	3 or more Children
$200 (weekly rate)	$180 (10% discount per child's tuition)	$160 (20% discount per child's tuition)

 What's Included

- All activity materials
- Daily communication with families
- Trained, caring staff – including an on-site nurses assistant and behavioral specialist
- Safe, supervised outdoor learning in a serene, private setting!

 Register Today! Spaces are limited.

Contact: Dominique Young – Camp Director

Email: franklinmanorfarm@gmail.com

Phone: 240-298-5383

Measuring outcomes

Key Indicators

Positively navigating interactions with others

Independently creating, sustaining, and managing interpersonal engagements

Promoting confidence, self-awareness, empathy, cooperation, and conflict navigation

We hope to see you soon!

