LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

HAPPY CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK!

This June marks my 17th year as a priest serving in the Diocese of Cleveland and all of them have been spent at parishes with a Catholic School. I am the product of 12 years of Catholic education with elementary, middle and high school at Notre Dame Elementary and Notre Dame-Cathedral Latin. I would not be a priest today without my Catholic school education. I am firmly convinced that a Catholic elementary school education does make a difference in the faith life of children. I realize and preach that parents are the first educators of their children in the ways of the faith. Without parental example and support, a Catholic education will not effectively pass on the faith. However, with parental example and support, a Catholic education will give children a lifelong religious foundation. At St. Columbkille we want to partner with parents in establishing a Catholic foundation in the life of your children. This Sunday begins Catholic Schools Week. If you are interested in St. Columbkille Parish School or know a family who might have a young child, please join us for our school Open House this Sunday, January 25th from 11 AM - 1 PM.

ST. FRANCIS DE SALES, PRAY FOR US!

Have you ever said to yourself: I wish I were holier, or knew how to pray better, or knew what I needed to do to deepen my spiritual life? If this sounds familiar, then the man we celebrate on January 24th is someone to whom you should pay careful attention. Saint Francis de Sales was born in AD 1567, in Savoy, France, and lived during the turbulent times following the Protestant Reformation. Francis' father had great plans for his son, and so sent him to study in Paris and then Padua, hoping that one day he would hold a great political office. Despite Francis' inclination that God might be calling him to the priesthood (something he was aware of for thirteen years), he did as his father wished, and earned a doctorate in law. Upon returning home from his studies, he was offered a political post, but refused it, and instead disclosed to his family that he wanted to become a priest. His father was very strongly opposed to the idea, and only after significant persuasion did he finally give his blessing.

After being ordained a priest, Francis found himself filled with zeal to bring souls back into Christ's Church. Just over the mountains from where he was serving was a Calvinist stronghold, and so he decided to lead a mission to win them back (an idea that many regarded as crazy). For three years, he traveled through Calvinist Switzerland, having doors slammed in his face, having rocks thrown at him, being forced at times to sleep in trees so as to avoid wolves, facing death threats, and even having his feet frostbitten so badly that they bled in the snow as he tromped through it. Initially, he met with no success, as no one would even talk with him. So, he began to copy his sermons and slip them under people's doors. He also reached out to the children of the towns that he visited, and when the parents saw how kind he was to their children, they began to talk to him. By the time Saint Francis returned home, through his writing and preaching, he had brought over 40,000 souls back into communion with the Catholic Church.

At the age of 35, Saint Francis became the Bishop of Geneva, where he continued to labor with great intensity, not only to win more converts back to the Catholic faith, but also to catechize and form the people placed under his charge. He served as a spiritual director for countless persons, offering direction both in person and in writing. This was revolutionary, as the commonly accepted notion at the time was that holiness was only for priests and nuns, but Francis upheld that all people were called by God to a life of holiness. He authored numerous works including Introduction to the Devout Life, where he explained in very practical terms how to live a holy life in the midst of the world. Saint Francis de Sales died in AD 1622. He was canonized in AD 1665, and in AD 1887, was declared a Doctor of the Church.

In Introduction to the Devout Life, Francis tells us that "devotion must be practiced in different ways by the nobleman and by the working man; by the servant and by the prince; by the widow, by the unmarried girl, and by the married woman. But even this distinction is not sufficient; for the practice of devotion must be adapted to the strength, to the occupation, and to the duties of each one in particular... [is it] proper for a bishop to want to lead a solitary life like a Carthusian; or for people to be no more concerned than a Capuchin about increasing their income; or for a working man to spend his whole day in church like a religious...?" Saint Francis reminds us that while we are all called to holiness, this call must be adapted according to our state in life. And so, if you find that you don't have the prayer life of a monk, that's ok, you're not supposed to (unless, of course, you are a monk). Each of us must have a prayer life adapted to the life to which God has called us. Everyone is called to prayer and service, but not everyone is called to prayer and service in exactly the same way. How is the Lord inviting you to prayer and service this week?

KNIGHTS WITH CHRIST THIS SUNDAY!

Last year in Bishop Malesic's pastoral letter entitled, "A Flourishing Apostolic Church," he outlined the clear mission for every parish is to worship, serve, and evangelize. At St. Columbkille, our mission is to Worship God, Serve Others, and Grow Disciples of Jesus (Evangelize). In the spirit of continuing to grow disciples of Jesus in 2026, we are adding a new series of four events with the purpose of encountering Jesus' Real Presence in the Holy Eucharist.

LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

Our first Knight with Christ is this Sunday, January 25th from 7-9 PM in the church. Each night, we will hear a hopeful and inspiring Catholic message, spend time in Eucharist Adoration with an opportunity for Confession, and end the evening with fellowship and food. If you know anyone who is a fallen away Catholic or someone who is a spiritual seeker looking to come back to God, please invite them to one of these great Knights with Christ! See further details in this weekend's bulletin.

Never forget, the Lord is with us, always!

Father Anthony J. Fusco

SPROUT YOUR SEED

In this talk, registered dietitian and St. Columbkille parishioner Mel Jatsek, shares her story of cancer, returning to the Catholic faith (after over 20 years of trying to "do life" by herself), and using food as medicine to heal her body.

Mel Jatsek, RD, LD, believes that the answer to a strong, healthy and vibrant body lies within. She has 25 years of experience in wellness program development, health coaching and professional speaking, and also serves as the Chief Dietitian for Heinen's Grocery Store. Mel offers expert guidance to help people take inspired action to build the healthy body they were meant to live in.
